FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, May 27, 1868.

SENATE.

Mr. SHERMAN gave notice he would on Thursday next call up the funding bill and endeavor to have it disposed of.

The bill to amend the act granting land in aid of a railroad and telegraph from the Central Pacific Railroad, in California, to Portland, Oregon, passed. It extends the time allowed for the completion of the road.

Mr. CONKLING introduced a concurrent resolution for adjournment on the 13th of June. Tabled.

The bill to incorporate the National Life Insurance Company of the United States was passed.

Mr. SUMNER submitted an order accepting the resignation of Mr. Forney and authorizing Mr. McDonald to act as Secretary of the Senate ad interim.

Messrs. DRAKE and HARLAN objected and the order went over.

On motion of Mr. MORTON, the Secretary of State was called on for copies of all correspondence and negotiations with the British Government relative to the Alabama claims.

On motion of Mr. DAWES, his resolution for a Committee to investigate as to the alleged threats or intimidations against Senators relative to the impeachment trial was taken up by a vote of twenty-three to fourteen.

Mr. DAWES then offered a substitute, differing slightly, including overtures of an improper character by a Senator or any person in the name of a Senator.

At the suggestion of Mr. CONKLING, he modified the resolution by inserting the words "or other persons" after Senators. He said he had no reference to any Senator and urged the necessity of an investigation, saying it was notorious that such threats and intimidations were used towards the Senate.

Alluding to a remark made on a former occasion by Mr. Fessenden, in regard to threats made in this chamber, Mr. FESSENDEN rejoined it was not a Senator, or an officer, that made them, but an outsider.

After further discussion the resolution was amended by providing that the Committee consist of five.

Mr. ROSS then rose and made a personal explanation at the conclusion of which the substitute was adopted.

At two o'clock the Senate held an executive session for about ten minutes.

When the Senate came out of executive session, the bill to admit Arkansas was taken up and discussed by Mr. DRAKE, who urged the propriety of his substitute.

Messrs. TRUMBULL and MORTON opposed it, and advocated the bill.

Mr. BUCKALEW also opposed the amendment, which Mr. DRAKE then modified by striking out the objectionable clause of an unalterable constitution so far as concerned the right of suffrage, and inserting one simply forbidding the denial of elective franchise on account of race or color, and Indians not taxed.

Mr. FERRY moved as an amendment to the amendment to strike out of the bill all but the following: "Be it enacted, &c., that the State of Arkansas is entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union."

After further discussion Mr. WILSON moved to adjourn, pending which Mr. BUCKALEW offered the following resolution, which was laid over:

Resolved, As the sense of the Senate, that any enforced attendance of a member of the Senate before the Committee of the House of Representatives to be examined as a witness on any question relating to the impeachment trial would be a flagrant breach of the privileges of the Senate, and that any voluntary utterance of a Senator before a committee for such purpose would be highly improper.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. CARY offered a resolution reciting that several bridges are in progress of construction across the Ohio river, and that that great highway of commerce should not be obstructed, and instructing the Post Office Committee to consider the propriety of a general law providing that no bridges shall be constructed over that river with a span over the channel of less than five hundred feet. Adopted.

The SPEAKER presented a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury, with a report of George W. Briggs on Canadian fisheries, &c. Referred.

Mr. MOORHEAD presented a petition of 9,000 workingmen of Pittsburgh and Allegheny county for an increase of duties.

Mr. BARNES introduced a joint resolution requiring National banks to make tri-monthly reports. Referred.

The Senate amendments to the Army Appropriation Bill were non-concurred in and a Committee of Conference asked for.

Mr. SCHENCK reported back the Tax bill and would ask its consideration in Committee of the Whole to-morrow, and daily thereafter until disposed of. Under instructions of the Committee of Ways and Means he reported back the printed bill, without amendments. He would have, however, a number of amendments, mostly of a verbal character.

Mr. FERRY offered a resolution instructing the Superintendent of Public Grounds to transmit flowers from all the public gardens to each of the National Cemeteries to be placed on soldier's graves, with private offerings, on the 30th inst. Adopted unanimously.

Mr. ELIOT reported back the River and Harbor bill, which, with amendments by Messrs. Maynard, Baker and Van Horn, was referred to Committee of the Whole.

Several unimportant bills were passed; also, a bill to re-establish boundaries of collection districts in Michigan, and a bill for the prevention and punishment of frauds on the revenue and for the prevention of smuggling.

Mr. ELIOT, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a substitute for Mr. Pike's bill to promote American commerce by a tonnage tax to be collected from vessels arriving from foreign ports. A drawback equal to duties is allowed on material used in ship building and rigging, provided five per centum thereof is retained for the use of the United States. There are several other new provisions, including one extending the provisions of the act of 1852 in reference to registering vessels to those built within the United States, provided they were not transferred during the rebellion to foreign powers.

After debate the bill went over until to-morrow.

The House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Blaine in the Chair, on the Indian appropriation bill.

Mr. BUTLER, who reported the bill, made some remarks in opposition to the present system of the administration of Indian affairs, characterizing it as unjust to the Indians and a source of very general corruption and fraud by Indian agents. He thought the Committee on Indian Affairs unanimously of the opinion the Indian Bureau should be transferred to the War Department.

Messrs. WINDOM and CHANLER opposed and Mr. PRUYN favored the idea.

The bill was then considered in detail, but without conclusion the Committe rose.

The bill to promote commerce, reported by Mr. Eliot, was made the special order for the second Monday in June.

Adjourned.

A caucus of Republican members was subsequently announced for to-morrow evening.

THE PRIZE RING.

The Coburn-M'Coole Prize Fight—Battle Between Patsy Sheppard and Mike Coburn—A Row—The Fight Declared a Draw—Coburn Arrested—The Great Fight Believed to Have Been Sold.

CINCINNATI, O., May 27.—McCoole was arrested near Cold Springs, Indiana, at three o'clock this morning, by the Sheriff of Dearborn county and taken to Lawrence. Parties have left here by a special train to effect his release. This may postpone the fight.

COLD SPRINGS, Ind., May 27.—The first excursion train arrived here at half-past nine, and found at least a thousand people, representing Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri on the ground. Before the start from Cincinnati there was an immense crowd around the Ohio and Mississippi depot, but the number that entered the cars was much smaller than was expected. The accommodations were by no means first-class. The train was made up of cattle, hog and grain cars, with rough wooden benches. At a point eighteen miles this side of the city the train was stopped and the conductor went around and examined the tickets, and several persons were put off, but just as the signal was given to start they leaped aboard again, so that the conductor was completely frustrated.

The arrest of McCoole at Lawrenceburg, Ind., creates immense excitement. Many were the curses heaped on the head of the Sheriff, and many more on the Judge, because he could not be found to accept bail. In a moment, however, we left, and in a brief interval were at this point, without further incident. The region around the Spring is desolate. It is a sort of hard clay, and looks as if it could not raise enough to eat to support a mouse with a respectable family of micelings.

The place chosen is nearly a mile north of the station, on the land of A. P. Cady, an old citizen. He protests he knew nothing of the arrangement; the pioneers of the fight had taken possession of the ground against his will, and that he was powerless to prevent them.

Coburn succeeded in dodging admirably. He went from place to place, and thus escaped arrest, although a large lot of officers were on his track all the morning. The ground this morning was moderately soft, but not so much as to be disagreeable; but at this hour 11:30 a. m., there is good prospects of rain, and there has been some sprinkling.

The news of the release of McCoole, on $1,000 bail, and that he was on his way to fight and forfeit the same, created a great sensation and general rejoicing. McCoole will be here in a few minutes, and he has not much time to spare.

The second excursion train which left Cincinnati at nine o'clock, containing eleven cars, with about one thousand passengers, has arrived. The crowd was very orderly in embarking, and in moving off the train was observed with interest and curiosity. The country people along the route arrived at Lawrenceburg at half past ten. A big crowd was at the depot to receive McCoole, he having been released on two thousand dollars bail. He was enthusiastically received by the excursionists. John Sheen, of Lawrenceburg, was his bail. The bail will be forfeited if the fight comes off.

Just before reaching Aurora, Elliott, of Cleveland, and Larkins, of New York, two well known pugilists, got into a dispute and drew revolvers, but no shooting was done.

McCoole looks almost precisely as he did at his fight with Jones. He is having a jolly time among his friends, and is confident of victory. There is little or no betting.

As we neared our destination there were indications of a rain storm. The grounds were reached at 11:35. Two thousand people await us. McCoole's appearance was greeted with applause.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

COLD SPRINGS, May 27.—The ring is being made, and the principals in the fight are in the vicinity, but hidden. McCoole is decidedly the favorite, the bets running two to one against Coburn. The St. Louis men are betting three to one one on McCoole. The New Yorkers are evidently discouraged.

It is estimated that there are five thousand people on the grounds. A sharp shower drove many people to the woods. The trees in the vicinity of the grounds are filled with spectators. Everybody is good natured. A party in the woods sung a camp-meeting hymn, in which hundreds joined.

About fifty newspapers were represented, including those of New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Louisville, Chicago, Indianapolis, etc.

At about 1:40 Mike Coburn, a brother of Joe, and Patsy Shephard, commenced a catch-weight fight, when the roughs broke the outer ring and rushed to the stakes, keeping out all reporters, so that nothing but the final report could be reported. The ring was broken into at this point and many were hurt, and the fight was declared a draw. Everything is confusion and disorder. It is generally believed that the McCoole and Coburn fight is off.

2:20 P. M.—Coburn was arrested just as he was entering the ring. The fight is probably off.

LATER.—Coburn, with his seconds, have just drove up to the field, at about a quarter to two.

The catch-weight fight for $300 was called on between Patsey Sheppard and Mike Coburn, brother of Joe, amid great confusion. Coburn's seconds were Dick Holliwood and Jimmy Elliott. Sheppard's were Johnny Mackey and Abe Hicken. Referee, John Murphy. There was so much excitement that it was utterly impossible to decide who the referee was. The press generally was excluded, and the utmost disorder prevailed. The fight commenced during a storm of rain. The first three rounds were decidedly in favor of Palsey Sheppard. The first blood and first knock down were Sheppard's. The fourth round both men came up smiling, and some very good sparring was done by each. Patsey hit short with the left and received a warmer in return on his potato trap. A rally and a close at the fourth when Sheppard went down. Fifth Round—Cautious sparring. Sheppard let fly with his left, and got in upon Coburn's right. Coburn cautious and retreating. Sheppard would not be denied, but in the rush he got a got a stinger on the right. A rally and Sheppard was carried to his corner. He hardly came to the scratch for the sixth round, when a violent tumult arose and the fight concluded. Decision, a draw.

At 2:30 there was great confusion and much dissatisfaction. Holliwood came running up from towards the depot and shouted "Coburn is arrested, and in the hands of the Sheriff. If you don't rescue him there will be no fight." A few started back with Holliwood, but not many. The general impression is that it was a sell. Coburn was arrested, however, and taken off by the Sheriff and his posse. Several independent fights in different parts of the crowd soon made all generally disgusted.

At ten minutes before three o'clock, McCoole shied his castor into the ring and running after, his burly figure appeared within the ropes. He seated himself in his corner and calmly awaited the coming of his antagonist. At three p. m., McCoole, through Lew Clark, of the St. Louis Times, demanded the battle money, and the crowd then dispersed. The question as to whether outside bets are off, is undecided.

CINCINNATI, May 27.—The excursion trains from the prize ring reached the city about half-past six o'clock. The excursionists are generally not in a very good humor, the impression prevailing that the fight had been sold. Coburn, after his arrest, was taken to Lawrenceburg, where he and McCoole remain to-night. The excitement in the city to-day was intense, but everything is quiet to-night, owing to the fact that a drenching rain has been falling since five o'clock, and grog shops are all closed.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

—Professor Meech, of Belfast, Ireland, has accepted the Presidency of Princeton College, N. J.

—The jury in the Callicott and Allen case, at New York are yet unable to agree on a verdict.

—Capt. Staples and mate of the Bark Helen Angier, have been arrested at New York, charged with the murder at sea of Thomas Holland, a seaman.

—Hon. Anson Burlingame and Chief Mondarins of the Chinese Embassy, will review the 7th N. Y. regiment, which parades to-day in a new uniform.

—Several members of Congress endeavored to persuade Mr. Stanton not to vacate the War Office, but he maintained it was the proper course for him to take.

—Democratic "wire pullers" recommend the National Democratic Executive Committee to extend an invitation to the "Conservative" soldiers and sailors throughout the country to attend the Convention at New York on the 4th of July and participate in its deliberations.

—Volney Winchell, the absconding broker, of Springfield, Mass., has made propositions to his creditors, through his attorney, for settlement. He offers to give his notes for one year for the full amount of his indebtedness. His whereabouts is still unknown.

—The officers who were appointed to investigate the late robbery of the Adams Express, near Seymour, Indiana, report the total loss to be $95,000, a part of which was in Government bonds. There were also $40,000 in greenbacks of large denominations. The numbers of both the bonds and the money had been taken and furnished to the company, and circulars containing the list have been sent for distribution among the banks and bankers. None of the thieves have been arrested.

—It is now generally conceded that the instructions of the Illinois Democratic State Convention, requiring the delegates to vote for Pendleton, will prove to be of no use to that gentleman. A muster of the thirt-two delegates shows a majority who are opposed to Pendleton personally, and to his platform, and who, relieving themselves on the first and second ballot of the obligation of their instructions, will vote thereafter for any man who will be satisfactory to New York and New England.

—The Philadelphia Press says that Andrew Johnson has been convicted before the people, and by thirty-five Senators, representing all of the great States of the Union, but he has been acquitted in parlor No. 6 of Willard's Hotel. He sits in his chair without honor and without influence, save in the distribution of public plunder. The duty of our party is now to drop the whole affair, leave the recreant Senators to their constituencies, and work for Grant and Colfax.

—The grand jury of New Orleans, on Tuesday, in a body, accompanied by the District Attorney, made complaint that the Chief of Police had avowed himself in possession of knowledge as to the whereabouts, within the State, of a noted burglar named Watson, who he agreed to arrest if compensated for so doing, and refusing to give the necessary information to the Sheriff, Watson having forfeited his bond. The charge is supported by affidavits of the Sheriff and his deputies. The grand jury state that the offense is not covered by any law of the State. They ask an action of investigation, and take the necessary steps in the matter.

Personal Explanation by Senator Ross—He Denies That He was Bribed—Wooley, the Witness, Still in Custody, &c., &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 27, 1868.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION BY SENATOR ROSS.

The following is the personal explanation by Senator Ross:

Mr. President—Since the vote taken in this Chamber on the 16th inst., which resulted in the acquittal of the President of the charge of a high misdemeanor in office, set out in the eleventh article of impeachment, the whole country has been filled with rumors of bribery and corruption on the part of members of this body. Were these rumors confined to the street or bar-room gossip they might not be worthy of notice; but the House of Representatives have deemed them of sufficient importance to predicate official action on them, and since the date of that vote the Board of Managers have been in daily session prosecuting investigations on this subject. These charges are calculated to affect the honor of the Senate, and as they have received from the House of Representatives such marked and protracted attention, it is becoming in the Senate to take notice of them. An investigation it is due from the Senate, from its high character, to its accused members, and to the American people. If there be on this floor a Senator who has offered or agreed to take a bribe, of any nature, to convict or acquit the President, let him be proven guilty before a commission of his peers and expelled. If there be one who has yielded his convictions to threats, let us expose the coward to the merited contempt and scorn of a courageous people. If there is one who has attempted to bully or bribe a fellow Senator, let us know the fact and determine whether he is a fit associate for us in this high council chamber. But if none of these offenses have marred the dignity of this great trial, let the calumnies which the tongues and pens of ten thousand slanderers have scattered over the land be dispelled, and let the purity and dignity of the American Senate, and the humblest as well as the highest members be vindicated by its own acts. I have borne in silence until now assaults on my own character and motives as a member of the Court, such as few if any of my associates have endured. I do not allude to the first storm of party denunciation which burst over the heads of the seven Republicans who voted not guilty, for that was anticipated, and I was prepared for it. The pelting of that storm I have borne with equanimity, conscious that I had performed a just and worthy act, and confident that the developments of time would bring an ample vindication of my conduct against the charges of infidelity to my party and the country. I allude to the charges of bribery in its various forms now being examined by the Managers of Impeachment in secret session. I allude to the scandals which have been deliberately circulated by those urging the course of impeachment and repeated threats of assassination, all brought together with a view of affecting my action in favor of the conviction of the President. Believing the trial would soon end, I have thus far submitted in silence to these accusations of assault rather than provoke a controversy in the Senate as to matters then pending before the Court. But the trial is now ended, and I have something to say in vindication of my conduct during it, which is my right and duty to say. At the beginning of the cause I was sworn by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States as a member of the Court of Impeachment, to do impartial justice to Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, according to the Constitution and laws. I had been and still was an earnest opponent of the reconstruction policy of his administration. I thought, as I still think, that policy in many most important particulars unwise for the best interests of the country. I longed, and still long, for such changes in the administration of the Government as would conform it to the views of the dominant party of the country, and the reconstruction policy of Congress. But I could not, with the light before me, declare the President guilty of high crimes and misdemesnors on mere difference as to Government policy. I sought to divert my mind of all party prejudices, hear the accusations and evidence, and endeavor to cast my vote in the cause with the courage and candor of an honest judge. In this spirit I discharged my duty as a member of the Court of Impeachment. I voted to admit all the evidence offered by the prosecution and defense, so that the Senate, sitting as a Court and Jury, as Judges in law and fact, might sift it all and determine the case with no fact shut out which bore on the guilt or innocence of the accused. And when I voted on several articles of impeachment, I cast out of the scale, as far as I was able, all mere party considerations and weighed the cause as the Constitution, and laws and my oath demanded. I do not claim the attention of the Senate to-day in order to vindicate the wisdom of my vote. The law and evidence applicable to the several articles have been ably discussed by the Managers on the part of the House, by tho counsel for the President and lawyers of the Senate, and any arguments from me would be egotistic, superfluous and now out of time. I ask the attention of the Senate to assert the integrity of my conduct as one of the judges, and denounce the falsehood set afloat affecting my honor as Senator, to demand of the Senate that all charges of improper influence brought to bear on Senators during the late trial be openly and thoroughly investigated by the Senate, and not be committed to secret investigation but public criticism of a board of prosecution appointed by the House. I challenge any man or board to appear before the Senate and exhibit accusations or evidence against me. And finally, I give notice that when that Committee is appointed, I shall move the Senate to call on the House for all the testimony taken by its Board of Managers under the resolution of the 16th inst., so if any evidence of corrupt practices for or towards any Senator, whether he be of those voting for or against conviction, be in possession of the board, it may not fail to be brought to the attention of the Senate. As a foundation for the charge of bribery brought against me, it is claimed I assured my colleague repeatedly, and up to the day of the vote, that I would vote for conviction on the 11th article; that he had my pledge to that effect, together with that of thirty-five other Senators, and that I suddenly and unaccountably, except on the supposition of bribery, changed by determination in a single night. If the assertion of fact were true, the inference were monstrously unfair. Who among you, Senators, anxious to keep his oath and to do impartial justice, was at all times free of doubt? This gentleman from West Virginia, (Mr. Willey) in a card published on the 25th inst. in the papers of this city, says he and his colleague were in doubt as to the 11th article until the week of this judgment, and that he was led by the announced opinion of the Chief Justice on the manner of taking the vote on that article, to vote for conviction, while his colleague, by the same opinion, to vote for acquittal. I confess, as I am sure a large part of Senate might truthfully do, to having entertained doubts about that and other articles, and I then resolved the question in my mind by giving to my country the benefit of my doubts. Until a few days before the vote was taken, I do not deny it had been my intention to support a portion of the Articles of Impeachment. Nor do I deny I have given numbers of those who approached me on that subject to understand that such was my intention. But, sir, does that debar me from changing that purpose when I become convinced that a wrong is to be perpetrated by carrying it out? Is it an uncommon thing for men's minds to be charged with the lapse of time and further development of of the question at issue? But no man ever had a positive assurance that I would vote for conviction or acquittal on that article, or either of the other articles voted on prior to Thursday the 14th inst. That my colleague had no such assurance, but was fully informed of my position on those articles, will be amply shown in the investigation contemplated by the testimony of Senators on both sides of the question of impeachment.

Mr. President, I have been no summer soldier, no sunshine patriot. I was baptised in politics in the old Abolition party of 1844, when but 7,000 men in the United States dared to say they were the friends of the slave, and bore my share of the whips and scorn which fell to the lot of its members before anti-slaveryism became a popular and lucrative profession. I led a colony to Kansas, in 1856, and there struggled with success to check the spread of slavery. And again, when rebellion threatened the nation's life, I entered the ranks of the Union army as a private soldier and carried the flag until slavery was destroyed and the authority of the National Government re-established. I have never labored or fought for plunder. My hands have no dishonorable stain upon them. No man can point to a single instances where I have wavered in the maintenance of my convictions, whether in the battle's front or the politics of the forum. Always poor in this world's goods, I have been contented in my work and fought for the establishment of principles which I believe to be beneficient to my fellow-man and to my country. And without egotism I may challenge any honorable Senator here to produce a record of service in civil or military life freer to this moment from all stain of selfishness or blot of dishonor than that which I now proudly look back upon and call my own.

Mr. President, I feel that this charge is heralded over the land and evidence ostentatiously sought to sustain it to make me a scape-goat for the egregious blunders, weaknesses and hates which have characterized this whole impeachment movement, itself a stupendous blunder from its inception to the present time. I have been singled out as the object of assault, doubtless, because I am a new member here, untrained in debate, unknown to politics, and comparatively without the means of self-defense possessed by abler and more experienced members. I am conscious of these disadvantages, as well as of the strength and malignity of my accusers. They have to-day at their back a large majority of the great patriotic party to which they and I belong, with nearly all its machinery of vengeance, while I have but a feeble voice here, backed, however, by that never failing source of strength, my own consciousness of rectitude and honest purpose. Let them do their worst. There is a just people behind us all, who constitute the Court of last resort, in which all our acts are tried and judged. Dearly as I value my hard-earned reputation, the chief property of myself, my wife, my children, profoundly as I appreciate my weakness and the strength of my accusers, I am upheld by a consciousness of rectitude which no power can shake, and I bid defiance to them and their calumnies.

SOLDIERS AS VOTERS.

An application has been made to the Supreme Court of this District for a mandamus commanding the Judges of elections to appear and show cause why the names of enlisted soldiers stationed here should not be erased from the registry lists. The Judges decided they would retain the names of those claimed to have been on duty in Washington one year prior to the day of election, while the petitioners charge that the soldiers have not and will not have been at the day of the election residents of the District one year, but were enlisted in a foreign State and had been located in the district but a few months, and much less than one year, and the records of the War Department will show such to be the fact. The Court directed a rule returnable to-morrow.

THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

Nothing had been done by the President up to one o'clock this afternoon concerning the War Department, but some of his friends say it is probable that he will order Adjutant General Thomas to take control of it until the Senate shall have acted on the nomination of Gen. Schofield. Gen. Thomas, it is understood, is not to recognize Stanton, but will turn over the War Department to the Assistant Adjutant General, inasmuch as he (Thomas) is acting in the capacity of Secretary of War ad interim. He has not made any demand on General Townsend.

ANOTHER NATURALIZATION TREATY.

The Secretary of State learns that a naturalization treaty has been negotiated by Mr. Bancroft with the King of Bavaria, equally liberal with the North German Treaty. It is understood the Secretary still hopes to negotiate a satisfactory treaty with the British Government upon the rights of naturalized citizens. Information had been received at the Department of Exchange at Berlin on the 9th inst., of the ratification of the treaty between the United States and the Northern German Confederation.

GEN. SCHOFIELD'S NOMINATION.

The Senate this afternoon in Executive session took up the nomination of General Schofield to be Secretary of War, but objection was made to its consideration and it went over under the rules. The prospects are it will be confirmed.

CONGRESS ADJOURNMENT.

There is a disposition on the part of a large number of members of Congress to adjourn about the 1st of July, in order that they may actively enter on the Presidential canvass.

NOMINATION LAID OVER.

The Senate laid on the table the nomination of Colonel Philip Faulke, of Illinois, as naval officer at New Orleans. This action retains Mr. Sullivan in that position.

INDIAN COMMISSION.

The Commission to the Osage Indians will soon conclude the treaty for their removal from southern Kansas to the Indian territory.

THE CONTUMACIOUS WITNESS.

Mr. Woolley was brouget before the Impeachment Committee to-day, but, as heretofore, failed to give satisfactory responses.

WHITE HOUSE CALLERS.

A large number of visitors called at the White House this morning, many simply to pay their respects to the President.

RATIFICATION.

The Republicans are making arrangements for a Grant and Colfax ratification meeting Friday night.

National Manufacturers' Convention.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, O, May 27.—The next annual meeting is appointed for the 3d Wednesday of December in New York. Resolutions were adopted declaring the necessity, for the purpose of obtaining just and wise legislation, of the association being maintained permanently; commending the action of the present Congress regarding retrenchment and economy and urging further efforts in the same direction; reduction of officers and clerks in the army and navy to the minimum; advising inquiry as to the feasibility of transferring the Indian Bureau to the War Department; deprecating the giving of public posts to politicians and partizans; approving Jenck's Civil Service bill, action of Congress in reducing taxes on manufactures, and hoping for entire relief from taxation of useful industries; referring to imports of iron, steel, cotton, &c., for 1867, as increasing the debt and deferring the return to specie payment, and demanding adequate protection to home industry: endorsing the national banking system, declaring it should be continued and extended; recommending the issue of long 3:65 per cent. gold bonds for funding the public debt, to be made the basis of banking under the national banking law. After some speeches and resolutions of thanks, adjourned till December next.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, May 27.—The following representatives from corresponding bodies were favorably received and addressed the Assembly upon the subject of the condition of their respective churches, viz: Rev. Alex R. Thompson, of the Reformed Dutch Church, Dr. Henry N. Pohlman, of the Evangelical Luthern Church, Rev. Geo. Appia, of Waldensian of Italy, and Rev. J. B. Clarke, of the United Presbyterian Church.

The Moderator welcomed them severally in expression of desires for the Union of all Presbyterian Churches.

The report of the Board of Domestic Missions was received, showing the following facts: Receipts of the year $113,109,69, with a reserve fund of $41,806,05; disbursements $146,660; number of missionaries in commission 619, 160 more than during the former year. Fifty-seven churches have been organized, 5,502 persons admitted to communion, 542 Sabbath Schools founded, 4,155 teachers, and 31,917 scholars added.

The report was considerably discussed, and Dr. J. T. Backus, of Baltimore, from the Committee appointed by the last assembly, recommended an entire change of management.

FROM EUROPE.

POLAND.

EXPECTED INSURRECTION.

LONDON, May 27.—Despatches from Warsaw report that bands of Polish exiles, said to have been recruited in France, appeared on the frontier of Galicia, and were making riotous demonstrations. It is believed that Lanziewiz, the leader of the last Polish insurrection, is at the head of these bands.

Rhode Island General Assembly.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PROVIDENCE, May 27.—The General Assembly of Representatives met at Newport, yesterday. After organizing, the votes for general officers were counted and declared. Governor Burnside and his associates were inducted into office for the ensuing year. Hon. Chas. C. Van Zandt was elected Speaker of the House, and John Turner and Joshua Addmen clerks of the Senate. To-morrow the election for civil officers of the State will be completed and the assembly will probably adjourn for two weeks then, to elect a United States Senator.

Card from Thurlow Weed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 27.—Thurlow Weed, in a card published in the Commercial Advertiser, over his own signature, charges Senator Pomeroy with either having intended to dispose of three votes on impeachment, or consenting to his friends using his name to make money. He mentions the names of Senators Nye and Tipton and others which Leggett and Gaylord, Pomeroy's friends, undertook to influence, although he does not believe they authorized the arrangement, nor that either would vote against the conviction of the President.

Protestant Episcopal Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, May 27.—The annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of the Diocese of Kentucky, met to-day. The Convention sermon was preached and Right Rev. Bishop Smith administered holy communion. The session will continue three days.

Suicide of a Woman.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, May 27.—Miss Kate Grauder, late of Madison, Ind., on a visit to relatives here, committed suicide last evening by jumping off a bluff at Fort Pickering into the river. She left a note saying she was tired of life.

Collector Convicted of Fraud.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 27.—The jury in the Callicott-Allen revenue fraud case this evening rendered a verdict of guilty against Callicott and of acquittal of Allen.

New Orleans Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

The Pittsburgh Gazette:

TRAILING ARBUTUS.

BY ROSE TERRY.

Darlings of the forest!
Blossoming alone,
When Earth's grief is sorest
For her jewels gone—
Ere the last snow-drift melts, your tender buds have blown.

Tinged with color faintly,
Like the morning sky,
Or, more pale and saintly,
Wrapped in leaves ye lie—
Even as children sleep in faith's simplicity.

There the wild-wood robin,
Hymns your solitude;
And the rain comes sobbing,
Through the budding wood
While the low south wind sighs, but dare not be more rude.

Were your pure lips fashioned
Out of air and dew—
Starlight unimpassioned,
Dawn's most tender hue,
And scented by the woods that gathered sweets for you?

Fairest and most lonely,
From the world apart;
Made for beauty only
Veiled from Nature's heart
With such unconscious grace as makes the dream of Art!

Were not mortal sorrow
An immortal shade,
Then would I to-morrow
Such a flower be made,
And live in the dear woods where my lost childhood played!

—The following advertisement appears in a London journal: "Wanted, by a thorough, earnest, converted young Christian preacher, a situation as layman or missionary. Willing to spread the truth through the blood of the Lamb as in Jesus, as it is so much needed in these dark ages of ritualism and popery. Can preach extempore, and draw sinners to the foot of the Cross through the blood of Christ. Address M. A., —— Hackney."

The Impeachment Lobby.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says:

Ever since the trial of the President began to assume a serious aspect, the signs of active work to prevent conviction, other than put forth by counsel, or the Chief Justice, have daily become more marked. Legislation was virtually at an end. All schemes before Congress were dead for the time, and the occupation of the usual lobby so far gone as to rid the city of them to a degree which caused general remark. Suddenly the old habitues returned, both male and female, and with them came new men, and new women too. One of the latter took rooms at Willard's, and soon between twenty and thirty persons were discovered by detectives to be engaged in whatever she was attempting to accomplish. Nothing definite could be ascertained. The actions and the information obtained looked like an attempt to poison, and the latter interpretation was for a time accepted. Later certain movements made indicated that money was to be used to accomplish the end in view. The parties, finding they were watched, dispersed. The woman, who seemed to be the leading spirit, went to New York and pretended to sail for California, but subsequently returned to this city.

A well known Collector came over here, and with some associates took rooms, where they settled themselves. One of their first acts was to send for one of the leading lobby operators.

One or two of the President's confidential men, most of them such as pass themselves off as bitter Radicals, and circulate freely among Radicals, were here, and very active.

Tennessee men were brought here to work on Fowler, and the whole Indian ring, headed by those who were speculators with Jim Lane, turned their batteries upon Ross. Gen. Tom Ewing, with the entire Interior Department at his back, was a powerful auxiliary of the President, and his influence has been felt. The whisky men have made no special attempts to conceal their designs, however they may have covered up their actions. They seemed to think it well to advertise their presence in a quiet way, and to boast of the enormous sums of money at their control.

It is far within bounds to say that no lobby since the war closed has been so numerous, so active, or so powerful as the one which gathered here to defeat the people in their efforts to unseat a corrupt and law-defying President.

SENATOR TRUMBULL gave a large party on Friday night at which all the anti-Impeachment Senators were present, together with Chief Justice Chase, but none of the Impeachment Senators, nor General Grant. If the latter were not invited it shows where Mr. Trumbull has placed himself. If they were invited and refused to come, it shows where Mr. Trumbull has been placed by his former political associates. Either way there is significance in the circumstance.

TO GLASS MANUFACTURERS.— The undersigned having secured the sole Agency for the sale of the celebrated

COPLEY POT CLAY.

Are now prepared to furnish it in any quantity to those wishing to procure this superior article. During fifteen years' use of this Clay, we have arrived at such proportions as we believe makes it a better article for pots than any in the market, we having secured an average stand at SIX, EIGHT and TEN MONTHS. We will furnish receipes for the proportion of the mixture of this Clay to persons purchasing. The Clay is ground and moulded in lumps for delivery.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point with four feet nine inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. The weather was cloudy and sultry, with an occasional shower of rain. Oil City telegrams report twenty-five inches in the Allegheny at that point.

The Kate Putnam and Bellevernon were loading at St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Monday.

Messrs. Ghriest & Haslett will, as usual, be on hand to-day at the foot of Wood street receiving freight for the steamer St. Charles. Shippers can rely on her being here on time.

The McCullough arrived about 1 o'clock p. m. yesterday from Cincinnati. She would have been in as predicted, about nine o'clock in the foreneon, had she not have been detained several hours by fog. This fine steamer, in command of Captain Geo. D. Moore, with his brother Dan in the office, will leave for Cincinnati to-day at noon. Passengers and shippers should bear in mind that she leaves promptly on time.

The Argosy departed for Cincinnati yesterday with a fair trip.

The Ingomar, from Wheeling, arrived and departed, as did also the Grey Eagle, from Parkersburg.

The Eagle reports having met the Emma No. 3 near Liverpool, all right. As she was drawing nearly all the water on leaving here, it was feared she might have trouble.

The Camelia is on the dock undergoing repairs, preparatory to entering the low water campaign.

The Messenger, Capt. Jesse Dean, is filling up rapidly, and is announced to leave for St. Louis this evening.

The R. C. Gray arrived at Cincinnati on Tuesday afternoon, loaded down to her guards.

The New State arrived from Louisville on Tuesday night with a fair trip. The Lorena, from St. Louis, was due last night.

We made an extract from a letter received from a Pittsburgh steamboat Captain, the other day, who was then at St. Louis, reflecting somewhat on the character of Missouri river boatmen. The St. Louis Dispatch is disposed to think that our correspondent was mistaken; we think not, as the writer of the letter above referred to is a man who would not be guilty of making the assertions he did if there was any doubt in regard to their not being true. If, as is alleged by the Dispatch, the charges are made against the "O" line, we should like to see an explanation from the officers of that Company in regard to the matter. All we ask is fair play for Pittsburgh boats—nothing more or less.

On the last trip down of the Bismarck a baby was born on board, which was christened Sam. Entriken Bismarck Murry, in honor of the steamer and her captain.

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Gazette of Tuesday: The sale of the G. A. Thompson, recently reported, has not been consummated.

The Kenton, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed down yesterday, well loaded. Pilots, John Snyder and Randolph Williams.

The St. Charles departed for Pittsburgh last evening with a fair trip. She received 600 sacks wheat from the Minneola, and 160 barrels bone dust from the Melnotte. Both the latter boats arrived yesterday.

The Alice Dean went over to the Licking river yesterday to lay up.

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Monday, says: Everything is quiet in river circles. The Illinois, Upper Mississippi and Missouri are falling fast. The arrivals of two days comprise eight from the Upper Mississippi, three from the Illinois, Belle Vernon, from Pittsburgh, four from the Lower Mississippi. The Stonewall, from Omaha, reports four feet above St. Joseph, and fifty-four inches below. The Leni Leoti, from Pittsburgh to Fort Benton, passed St. Joseph on Saturday. The Forsyth was sold on 'Change to-day for $6,100; and Mississippi for $17,800 to Walker R. Carter, and the Luminary for $14,150 to W. Fitzgerald. There is an impression that the steamers were bid in for the owners, the Atlantic Steamship Co.

Another dispatch from same point says: At the steamboat sale to-day W. R. Carter bid in the Mary E. Forsyth and Mississippi: the was built in 1862 and cost $55,000, and the latter was built in 1864, and cost $100,000. The Luminary was bought by Wm. Fitzgerald, and will go into the Vicksburg trade; she was built in 1863, and cost $63,000.

A very amusing scene arising out of opposition, was witnessed at Dubuque last week, as the City of St. Paul and Hawkeye State lay there. The former craft has a colored band which it is said discourses very fine music, and, being an opposition packet, a joke was played on the musicians. The Hawkeye's crew, also colored, were provided with a barrel full of tin horns and comical-shaped paper hats. Every time the band would strike up a tune the Hawkeye's crew would follow suit, and such a horrid din, it is said, was never heard on the levee before. Such blowing, tooting and bleating set all the calves in the neighborhood bellowing, and convulsed the crowd of people with laughter at the ludicrous scene. "Gideon Band" was heavy on E flat, and drowned all efforts of the regular musicians.

The Ezra Porter has laid up at Cincinnati and will have her upper guards cut off to increase her cotton-carrying capacity.

The towboat Diamond, from Memphis to Pittsburgh, passed Louisville on Sunday with a tow of sixteen empty barges.

River and Weather.

[By Telegraph to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, May 27.—River falling with seven feet four inches in canal, weather cloudy and warm.

SILVER MINES.—We shall, in a few days, send an agent to Silver Mountain, Colorado, to develope ten different Lodes of Silver Ore, discovered and located by experienced miners and situated in an unusually rich mining district. It is intended to have them fully developed before going to the expense of erecting buildings, machinery, &c. For this development the Company have determined to sell a limited amount of the stock at a rate which will place purchasers on the same footing as the proprietors themselves. For full particulars apply to B. McLAIN & CO., mh28 122 Fourth street.

CITY OF PITTSBURGH WATER LOAN.

PROPOSALS FOR

OF THE

Bonds of the "Water Extension Loan,"

Will be received at the office of the CITY CONTROLLER, Fourth street.

These are COUPON BONDS, bearing interest at the rate of SEVEN PER CENT. per annum, payable semi-annually, at the office of the City Treasurer, and the Bonds are to be paid off in twenty-five years from April 1, 1868.

By Act of Assembly the Revenue of the Water Works is pledged for the payment of the Bonds and Coupons, and the latter are by law made receivable for Water Rents, and the Act authorizing the Loan creates a SINKING FUND of not less than two per cent. of all bonds which may have been issued in pursuance of said Act. The Councils are bound to appropriate annually a sufficient sum for interest, and not less than two per cent. of all bonds which may have issued to go into the Sinking Fund.

The proceeds of these Bonds can only be used for the extension and improvement of the City Water Works, which will increase the revenue, while at present it is far greater than is required to insure the payment of interest and retirement of the Bonds.

The Bonds are EXEMPT FROM STATE, COUNTY and CITY TAX, which, together with all the foregoing advantages, make the Bonds the most desirable security offered to the public.

Bids under par will not be considered.

By order of Finance Committee.

THOMAS STEEL, Controller.

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be adplied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

Gold closed in New York yesterday at 139¾.

The Mississippi election has been fixed for June 22d, "to continue from day to day until completed."

As soon as Congress adjourns, Speaker Colfax will sail for the Pacific coast, where the opening canvass will receive his effectual co-operation. Thence he will return home overland.

The Erie Dispatch, under its new management, abandons its pre-existing "independent" position, runs up the Republican flag and pledges itself for effective service in promoting the election of Grant and Colfax.

The "personal explanations" with which sundry Senators, standing by the death-bed of impeachment, relieved the solemnity of the occasion, have about as much intrinsic importance as if the enquiry had been, "Who killed Cock Robin?"

Whatever the motives of Senators, who have sold out to Johnson, may be, and however they may for a time succeed in keeping the details of their shameful contract secret, a close observation of their votes for the remainder of the session, upon questions of subsidy, upon land grants, the issue of bonds to railway lines, the whisky tax, &c., will not fail to shed much light upon mysteries which are at present in the dark.

The State Guard is "gratified to hear from a friend that James L. Graham, of Allegheny City, and ex-Speaker of the State Senate, has no opposition for re-election. We are heartily glad to record this fact, as Speaker Graham is among the few men whose legislative career is untainted by charge or suspicion and, therefore, his reelection will be a guarantee of three more years fair and able service to his constituents, an assurance which is of the utmost importance to all who look to honesty in the Legislature as essential to prosperity among the people."

The House of Representatives will act judiciously in foregoing any other attempt to resist or punish Executive encroachments by an impeachment process. Nothing is clearer than that the constitutional provisions in that direction are, and will be, a dead letter in the present condition of affairs at Washington, no matter upon what charge the Executive may be arraigned. The influence of corruption is too powerful to be resisted. It has melted down our preponderance of two-thirds in the Senate, until there are reasons for much doubt if we could make sure of even a bare majority, upon any issue which threatens the overthrow of an all-powerful lobby. The House can apply its time to more useful purposes.

Political and personal corruptions have won the impeachment game, trumping in at the right moment to take the odd trick, but Edwin M. Stanton carries off all the honors. He has done his whole duty, consistently and honorably. Relinquishing the War Office as soon as the treachery of false friends had completed its work, the brevity of his official notification of retirement is quite long enough to comprehend the whole shameful story of the nation's betrayal. Assigning for the reason of his withdrawal a simple statement of the Senate's failure to support logically and properly its own formal vote of February 21st, he writes a complete history in his own vindication, and to the everlasting dishonor of the recreants.

A correspondent who professes to speak by the card states that Mr. Carl Schurz could not induce the Committee on Resolutions at Chicago to adopt his resolution favoring "the removal of the disqualifications and restrictions imposed upon the late rebels in the same measure as their spirit of loyalty will direct, and as may be consistent with the safety of the loyal people." The Convention adopted it, however, with scarcely a sign of dissent.—N. Y. Times.

Mr. Schurz met, by invitation, with the Committee on Resolutions. After he presented his amendatory clauses to the Convention, a member of the Committee, a most reliable man, expressed to us surprise that the amendments had not been suggested to the Committee, assuring us that if they had been, they would have been accepted at once.

The Platform owes its admirable shape and balance mainly to Mr. Thompson, of Indiana.

MIS-CARRIAGE IN PROSPECT.

We remarked yesterday that we did not know how much truth, if any, there was in the prevalent reports of negotiations pending for the consolidation or affiliation of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, and the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company. But it stands to reason that the first named of these three Companies will prevent if it can the organization of a new trunk line from east to west, through this city, either by way of the Allegheny or the Youghiogheny, or any other route that may be projected. As this movement was foreseen by every man here of even ordinary penetration, measures ought to have been promptly taken to render it abortive.

If the Allegheny Valley Railroad shall be absorbed or pass under the control of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad will be cut off from a direct or available independent connection with Philadelphia and New York. If the Pittsburgh Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad shall be consolidated with the Pennsylvania Railroad, or shall be closely affiliated therewith, the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, when completed, will not assume the importance of a trunk line, but will remain an ordinary local road.

Either and all of these results we earnestly deprecate. We believe in competition, and hence have not grumbled or growled at any of the incidents flowing therefrom. Competition in railway freights, East and West, would be of great utility to the business interests of this city and region; but it is folly to insist or imagine that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will either institute a competition with itself or allow competition to spring up against it, so long as the power to stop arrangements to that end is in its own possession. There is a good deal of human nature in the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and while, for many years, we have felt impelled to resist its grasping disposition, we can but applaud the skill and pluck with which it executes its purposes.

The people of Pittsburgh are too slow. Before putting money into the Allegheny Valley Railroad they should have made sure of a connection at Harrisburg with the Allentown line, or at Northumberland with the Bloomsburg and Lackawanna or the Catawissa, and of the identification of the line selected with the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad. So, too, months ago, in view of the decision, inevitable from the start, restoring the charter of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, our business men should have interested themselves efficiently in consummating a permanent arrangement between that Company and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company. The gods have a trick of helping those who help themselves. They rarely, if ever, help anybody else. This may be cold and calculating on the part of the gods, but so long as that is their chosen way of proceeding, and no power exists to thwart their pleasure, wisdom would dictate falling in with that order of affairs.

But, it is fair to infer if our citizens who put money into the Allegheny Valley Railroad are anxious to sell out, even to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, they know what they are about, and prefer to take care of their personal interests rather than to peril them by endeavors to promote the general good. They cannot reasonably be charged with hostility to Pittsburgh, or with affection for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. A solution for their conduct must be found in factors of the railway problem which are commonly overlooked by our people.

The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company cannot afford to have its line reduced to the condition of a local road. It must either obtain an independent connection eastward of this city, or must make the best arrangement it can with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Doubtless Gen. Cass and the Board of Directors associated with him, would prefer a trunk line under their own management to a consolidation with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company; and will do the best they can under the circumstances in which they are placed. But what will our citizens do towards perfecting an independent line from here to the Coast?

A statement made by the Titusville Herald, of Monday last, illustrates a point we made yesterday relative to railway freights. It is to the effect that the Oil Creek Refiners of Petroleum have been subjected to high rates of freights, in sending their product to New York as compared with Refiners at some other places. Last week, in response to some sort of cogent argument or appeal the New York Central Railroad Company reduced the charges on its line so as to make the freight from Oil City to New York stand at $2 a barrel instead of $2,23. This is a reduction the Pennsylvania Railroad Company cannot ignore. Unless the amount of refined oil is much more than the New York Central can carry in addition to its other engagements, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has only a choice of alternatives—it must either consent to lose this traffic entirely, or it must reduce rates on its line so as to make the cost of transportation over it to New York at least as low as by the northern route. What it will do is not difficult to determine. If this freight is much more than its competitor can deliver, it may maintain its prices, taking the business that will necessarily come to it. Otherwise, it will reduce its charges correspondingly with the northern line, provided it can do so and yet leave any margin of profit. If no such margin would survive the required reduction, it will be forced to let the New York Central take the business.

These suggestions are so obvious that it seems supererogatory, if not absurd, to reiterate them. But there has been, and still is, so much unreasonable clamor to the import that any trunk line can make its through rates what it will, independently of the pressure of inevitable competition, that we are constrained to repeat them.

LAWS FOR WORKING MEN.

At the last session of the Legislature of Pennsylvania three laws were enacted designed particularly to meet the wishes and promote the welfare of those numerous and influential classes of the population who are engaged in mechanical and manufacturing employments for wages. 1. A law to limit the time of labor constituting a legal day's work to eight hours; 2. A law relative to landlords and tenants, which repeals what is known as the Tioga law; and, 3. A law authorizing the organization of co-operative associations, for the purpose of carrying on any mechanical, mining, manufacturing or trading business.

The first two of these laws do not seem to us of practical consequence; for the plain reason that it always takes two parties to make a bargain. A man cannot sell his labor unless he can find a man who wants to buy it; and when these two meet they must come to agreement as to the quality and duration of the labor and the wages to be paid for it. In the very nature of the case, laws cannot conclude and compel either of them. The same rule holds as to all bargains for the use of tenements. The owner of houses may rent them or not, as he shall judge best for himself. He cannot be forced to rent his property against his will, or to accept of any terms except such as, under all the circumstances, are satisfactory to him. In other words a landlord and tenant must make a bargain between them, and that bargain each must be able to constrain the other to fulfill. Still, the body of working men conceived these two laws to be desirable, and the Legislature, controlled by the Republican majority, and with the cooperation of a Republican Governor gave them what they desired. The event may demonstrate, moreover, that the judgment of the working men upon these subjects is more accurate than that we have formed, and that these laws will be of great advantage to them without detriment to the natural and essential rights of other people. If such shall prove to be the case, we shall be glad to correct our view of the matter.

The third law, that is the law authorizing the formation of co-operative associations, is of great practical consequence, in that it allows a number of workmen in any trade or calling, to combine whatever skill and other resources they have, and thus acquire and enjoy all the profits accruing from their industry. Under this plan they become at once capitalists and laborers, and dispensing with middle-men, reap all the advantages possible in their condition.

What is most essential in associations of this description is to secure the co-operation of one or more individuals who have natural aptitudes for traffic; that is, who have the perceptive faculties, rather than the reflective ones, largely developed; and those not in the higher range, but in the lower. This peculiar development, which makes a natural trader is essential to success in ordinary business pursuits. There are one hundred competent workmen in each trade to one man who has the qualities requisite to conduct aright a traffic in the commodities produced by them. Nor is this a slur upon working men. In proportion as persons are thinkers thay are not traders. Hence, the poverty of most philosophers and poets, until the present age, when the publisher and bookseller have become their auxiliaries, and enabled them to accomplish what they could not do alone—transmute their thoughts into gold or greenbacks.

In addition to these three laws the Legislature passed a bill extending the Mechanic's Lien Law to Repairs, and providing for the speedy trial of cases where liens have been filed. The Governor has not yet signed this bill, but the expectation is that he will, and that it will go into operation on the first of August, according to its terms. This bill is as essentially just as the law allowing liens to workmen and material men concerned in the erection of new structures, the propriety of which has never been called in question.

The enactment of these laws by the Republican party proceeded from its genius and disposition, which is to raise up and defend all classes of the population, without regard to traditional opinions, passions or prejudices.

The question of color is a diminishing element in southern politics. The Democracy of the Gulf States have learned the need for a policy of conciliation in their dealings with the newly enfranchised race, and have come to regard a fusion with the colored voters as not only practicable but as already in many quarters an accomplished fact. They are shrewd enough to perceive that, in opposition to Northern loyalty, if it is backed up by the hearty accord of the Southern freedmen, they have not even the ghost of a chance for success in the Presidential canvass. More than this, beyond the defeat inevitable in November, they clearly foresee the inevitable extinguishment of their party as a National organization. Nothing can avert this fate except a formal and hearty endorsement of the new, and heretofore most unacceptable, theory of political equality. The intellect of the race, which has been so long proscribed, is receiving a rapid and powerful development; the freedmen are not only in effect masters of the political situation, but they have themselves discovered the fact. The effect of their enfranchisement, in this respect, is most remarkable. Never before in the world's history, has a similar instance been known, of millions of the enslaved and oppressed springing, as it were with a bound, from a condition of inferiority, which conceded to them no rights, personal or political, recognized by the superior class—ignorant, debased, helpless and hopeless—up to the level of their former masters, upon the high plane of an intelligent citizenship, their God-given rights all restored and the equal privileges of personal liberty conferred upon them. Never before was seen an enfranchised people not only relieved from its yoke, but, in the same moment, elevating itself morally and intellectually to the level of the political situation, and already mature in the comprehension of its new duties and privileges before the blood of its first baptism is dry. It is to this race, which comprehends so faithfully its present position, that Southern aristocracy—by the same turn of the wheel transformed into an intensely Democratic and practical radicalism—now addresses arguments in place of coercion, seductive solicitations instead of the old scourges and chains, to invite its equal alliance. These arguments must be potent in order to win; they must be sincere, radical and consistently maintained, to warrant any hope of success. Southern Democracy cannot afford to stop short of the last point, in its efforts to regain power in this direction. It must be sustained by the party at the North, heartily and unequivocally, to the extreme. And their July Convention will meet the requirements of the occasion accordingly. Nothing is clearer than the drift of the Democratic party toward the political equality of races, and we recommend to our friends and neighbors of that faith to be getting down as fast as possible from their old prejudices, and to prepare themselves for the inevitable platform of Equal Suffrage, to be constructed by their National Convention at New York.

The vote by which the Senate adjourned impeachment sine die, leaving eight articles undisposed of, was strictly partizan, the Democratic side mustering four of its new recruits, Fowler, Henderson, Ross and Trumbull. Nevertheless, we repeat our expression of yesterday that it would have been better that the other articles should been, pro forma, severally acted upon and the record completed. No loop-hole of escape should have been left for Ross, who will now insist that he would have sustained the first article. His pledge to this effect stands uncontradicted, while the chance to test his sincerity is gone forever. No one doubts that he would have violated his engagement in that regard, as concerning the eleventh also, but the complete treachery is left among the probabilities, instead of the certainties where we should have preferred it. Beyond this special consideration, Senators must also see that they gain nothing upon a general view of the situation. On the contrary, they are exposed to the suspicion of a demoralization entirely inconsistent with the ostensible dignity of the proceedings, or with the claim of an effective political organization.

There are rumors of the President's intention to proclaim a universal amnesty at an early day. Such an action will go far to confirm the prevalent suspicions that the Presidential canvass in the South is to be constructed by the Democracy on the basis of the white vote alone. Strengthening this class will be an effective step in the programme for a disfrahchisement of the blacks. But can Johnson force the Democracy to accept his idea of a white man's elevation? A very powerful interest is at work in the party to secure the acknowledgment and elevation of the black element, instead of discarding and denouncing it. In fact, that party stands in a quandary at the forks of two roads, one of which leads to equal suffrage and Chase for their candidate, while Mr. Johnson invites them to follow the "white man's party" and himself along the other. The embarrassment is likely to end in a preference for the first policy, while Mr. Chase's prospects as a candidate will depend upon circumstances.

The Republican Primary elections in Erie county, under the "Crawford system," will be held July 11th. The Congressional Conference for the Nineteenth District, in which that county is included, will be held July 21st. Three or four candidates for Congress have been brought forward in Erie, making the nomination of Mr. Schofield somewhat probable.

Measures have been taken for a thorough organization of the Republican forces in Erie county, preparatory to the fall campaign.

On the 25th inst. a Ward Ratification meeting was held in the city of Erie, which may be regarded as a brilliant opening of the canvass.

A confirmation, by the Senate, of the pending nomination of Gen. Schofield as Secretary of War, would have the effect of postponing temporarily the unpleasant relations which are ultimately inevitable between Gen. Grant and the President. We should regret to lose so good a commander from the Virginia district, especially if Hancock be sent to occupy the place.

Confirmatory Testimony.

During the war Professor Jones, now of the University of Tennessee, held a medical commission under the Confederate Government. While serving in that capacity he made an examination of the Andersonville prison pens, and forwarded an elaborate report of his examination to the Richmond junta. That report was burned at the evacuation. The original notes, however, were preserved and here is an extract from them, dated Andersonville, October 19, 1864:

"Since the establishment of the prison to the present time over ten thousand Federal prisoners have died; that is, near one-third of the entire number have perished in less than seven months. * * * There were more than five thousand sick in the hospital and stockade, and the deaths ranged from ninety to one hundred and thirty each day. * * * Diarrhoea, dysentery, scurvy and hospital gangrene were the diseases which have been the main causes of the extraordinary mortality. * * * More than thirty thousand men crowded upon twenty-seven acres of land, with little or no shelter from the intense heat of a Southern summer, or from the rain and dew, with coarse corn bread from which the husk had not been removed, with scant supplies of fresh meat and vegetables, with little or no attention to hygiene, with festering masses of filth at the very doors of their rude dens and huts, with the greater portion of the banks of the stream flowing through the stockade a filthy quagmire of human excrements, alive with working maggots, generated by their own filthy exhalations and excretions—an atmosphere that so deteriorated and contaminated their solids and fluids that the slightest scratch of the surface, even the bites of small insects, were frequently followed by such rapid and extensive gangrene as to destroy extremities and even life itself."

Washington Topics and Gossip.

Specials of Wednesday say: The abdication of Secretary Stanton and its consequences was the principal topic of conversation about the Capital this morning. A report was current that ad interim Thomas, who has regularly attended Cabinet meetings, had taken possession of the War Office. This was incorrect, however, for at half-past eleven o'clock everything about the War Department was in statu quo, as left last night by Mr. Stanton, and General Thomas had not made his appearance. General Townsend was in charge, and General Pelouzee was at his accustomed desk in the Secretary's outer office. It is believed that the Senate will take an early occasion to act upon the nomination of General Schofield and other important nominations now before it. When a new Secretary goes in it is probable there will be a number of changes in personnel of military officers on duty in the War Office.

It is known that the President has been advised both by his counsel and by prominent Democratic politicians, since his acquittal, to act during the summer and fall with great caution, and it is believed he will not at present indulge in any very violent executive vagaries.

The Managers were in session several hours. They had Woolley before them, but as he proved obstinate they sent him back to the Committee Room of Foreign Affairs, in which he is confined. Woolley has been put in possession of very commodious summer quarters, if he is to remain where he is.

General Grant has advised the Senators to confirm General Schofield at once as Secretary of War. The Military Committee will recommend it, and the nomination will probably be called up for action.

The revision of the revenue bill, which had been made the special order for one day was postponed, on motion of Mr. Schenck. The opinion of the Committee has been that this bill could be finished in three or four weeks, but the more general sentiment now seems to be that it will take from six weeks to two months in the House, and little if any less time in the Senate, and should this seem likely to be the case after it has been taken up, it will probably be postponed until next winter.

Notice was given that on Monday next a motion would be made to suspend the rules to fix some future time to consider the river and harbor bill in Committee of the Whole.

Later dispatches say: Mr. Johnson's friends are still crowding to the White House to congratulate him. He takes the acquittal very coolly, having been aware of the result for some weeks. General Thomas will act as Secretary of War ad interim, and General Schofield will be appointed Secretary and confirmed in a few days, it is thought.

The President has notified Stanton that his note relinquishing the office will not be officially noticed. This means that a full resignation is desirable. Mr. Stanton will remain in Washington until General Schofield is confirmed as Secretary of War.

Butler's investigation is to proceed regularly. It is quite probable that Wooley will make some disclosures as he is tired of imprisonment and has agreed to answer most of the questions propounded.

General Townsend has charge of the War Department, as General Thomas is somewhat unwell.

Mr. Stevens says he will not offer any new article of impeachment, but it is probable that Butler and Boutwell will do so about ten days hence. The people are glad the contest is over, and it is hoped that Congress will now go to work in good earnest and finish up its legislative business. All but Fessenden will vote with the Republicans on bills in future. He has gone over to the Democrats.

A Straw on the Stream.—Chief Justice Chase, immediately on resuming his seat after taking the verdict in the Impeachment trial, wrote upon a blank card, and sent it to a gentleman on the floor of the Senate, whom he had more than once assured during the week that the President would be acquitted. The card bore but a single word, and that, for greater decorum, was in disguise. That word was the exultant use of the French exclamation of Voila! If this is doubted we can prove it.—Wilke's Spirit of the Times.

NATURE IS THE GREAT PHYSICIAN.

This is now admitted, by the medical profession, as a fundamental principle of healing science. It is wisely provided by the human economy that whenever anything is wrong in the physical system the natural forces of the body are brought to bear to expel the disease. The great aim, therefore, is to strengthen the natural powers. This has been kept in view by the skillful compounders of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which operates to give fresh vitality to all the organs of the body. The effect of this medicine upon the stomach, the liver and the kidneys, is prompt and decisive. The patient, who is wise enough to quit drugging and try the BITTERS, soon feels as if he had taken a new lease of life, and as he continues the use of the article, he is overjoyed to find the streams of health coursing through his frame. It is prepared with great care, and its component parts are entirely vegetable. It is free from the objections so often urged against preparations of the kind. As a medical agent it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and healthful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS attest its virtues and commend it to use. Even those who are in enjoyment of perfect health frequently have need to have recourse to tonics as preventives of disease. We are never too well armed against the assaults of "the ills that flesh is heir to." In health or sickness this tonic cannot be taken regularly without giving vitality and elasticity to the system.

ANOTHER CURE OF DEAFNESS.

I lost my hearing during the last year. Part of the time I was totally deaf. In April of this year I was induced, from an advertisement, to make application to Dr. Keyser, 120 Penn street, Pittsburgh. After having tried various medicines from doctors, without any benefit, I have been under Dr. Keyser's treatment now for nearly two months, and am entirely restored to my hearing, so that I can hear a pin drop. JOHN SCANLAN,

ANOTHER CURE.

A man called to-day at Dr. Keyser's office to inform him of a great cure made by his Lung Cure, or Pulmonary Restorative. list these cures are made with the Doctor's preparations, he desires it to be distinctly understood that most of his great cures are made in accordance with the established laws that govern the science of medicine, in which he has been engaged for the past twenty-five years. Last week he was also in receipt of a letter from a clergyman in the State of Ohio, detailing another most wonderful cure.

Which TEN YEARS' TRIAL in New York and other Eastern cities has proved a complete success.

ITS ADVANTAGES:

1st—Fading and Shrinkage are completely avoided.

2d—No ripping apart necessary.

3d—When freed from dust, moths or their larvae, the Carpet looks nearly as good as new, save the natural fading from wear.

4th—When perfectly clean, a Carpet will wear as long again, a desirable matter as a mere point of economy, to say nothing of looks.

AUCTION SALES.

BY A. LEGGATE.

RESIDENCE AND GROUNDS on OHIO AVENUE, ALLEGHENY CITY, AT AUCTION—SALE ON THE PREMISES, AT 2 O'CLOCK, ON FRIDAY, MAY 29TH.

The spacious and finely situated grounds, with a commodious dwelling house, the present residence of Mr. Jonathan Gallaher, on Ohio avenue, Allegheny, near the new Methodist Church, will be sold at auction on FRIDAY AFTERNOON, May 29th, at 2 o'clock. The lot fronts 122 feet on Ohio avenue, and extends 300 feet to Locust, a 50 feet street. It is finely embellished with lawn, trees, gravel paths and carriage drive, fountain, summer house, iron fences and gates. The house has three porches, spacious hall, large double parlors, finely frescoed, four bed-rooms, library, dining-room, kitchen with range, and three finished attic rooms. The apartments are all spacious, well ventilated and have high ceilings; gas throughout.

The views from the house are extensive and exceedingly fine, embracing city, river and surrounding hills as far as Dixmont, to the west. The passenger cars pass in front of the lot. Churches of nearly all denominations in the vicinity.

Terms—One-third cash, balance in three annual payments. Possession given to suit the purchaser.

A. LEGGATE, Auctioneer,

FOR SALE.

A RIVER BOTTOM FARM OF 76 ACRES, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from this city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; two apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagonshed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other businessr For particulars enquire of

CARRIAGES, BAROUCHES

AND HORSES

AT AUCTION.

Third Important and Extensive Public Sale at Shafer's Carriage Bazaar, Dinmond Alley, near Liberty Street.

On Wednesday, June 3, at 10 o'clock A. M.

The third popular sale will take place at SHAFER'S CARRIAGE BAZAAR, of a large assortment of Carriages, Barouches, Buggies, Jagger Wagons, together with a number of other styles of light vehicles; also,

TWO FINE ROAD HORSES.

One fine Mahogany Bay Trotting Stallion, 15¾ hands high, 7 years old, without a blemish, known as "Little George." Has beaten and can beat 2:45 to harness, and has no superior as a pole horse, for his speed; very quiet and kind.

And that fine, stylish Bay Mare, raised by George W. Smith, Esq., of Wheeling, W. Va. Sired by his Glencoe horse; dam, a very fine Tuckeyhoe mare; 7 years old; sound and kind; 15½ hands high; has trotted in three minutes to a road wagon, and is a most excellent saddle mare. Known as the "Mackey Mare." The owner wishes to dispose of these horses, as he intends to be absent from the city the greater part of the coming summer. These horses can be seen prior to the day of sale at No. 204 Penn street.

In addition, a large and well assorted stock of fine Harness, &c., will be sold at some time and place.

All interested should know that these vehicles, horses, harness, &c., will be sold without reserve, and those wishing anything in the several lines will find it to their benefit to attend.

DESIRABLE CITY MANSION & EXTENSIVE ORNAMENTAL GROUNDS, No. 1 Cliff street, Sixth ward.

On SATURDAY AFTERNOON, May 30th, at 4 o'clock, will be sold on the premises, in Sixth ward, the very desirable city mansion, No. 1 Cliff street, next to corner of Fulton street, and the extensive ornamental grounds attached, of Robert Robb, Esq. It is a substantial, large and neat two-story Frame Mansion, surrounded by handsome, wide porticos, the sides of building filled in with brick, plastered and weather-boarded; containing 8 large rooms, beside dining-room, kitchen and cellar. Marble mantles, hot and cold water and gas throughout.

The Lot is 72 feet front on Cliff street by 147 feet in depth, with an adjoining front of 96 feet on Cliff street, and 277 feet in depth to Bedford avenue. Any part or all of these beautiful grounds will be sold with the mansion and lot, as may be desired. Or if purchasers for the mansion do not wish the full depth of these additional grounds from Cliff street, a sub-division of the 4 lots on Bedford avenue, each 24 feet front and 130 in depth, will be sold separately.

Also, one lot on the north side of Cliff street, 50 feet front by 126 feet in depth, whereon is erected a brick stable.

This situation is unsurpassed in its advantages of pure air, magnificent views, elegant surroundings, and convenient for city business men. Those wishing are invited to examine the premises.

Terms—One-half cash; balance in one year, with interest.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, May 27, 1868.

The acquittal of the President did effect the premium on gold to the extent of ⅛ to ¼ per cent. The opening quotation was 140, fluctuating between 139¾ and 140, and closing at 139⅞. The export of specie by to-day's steamers amounted to about two million dollars, and is the main cause of the firmess of the market. So long as the Government by disbursing for interest and the California shipments supplied the market, for the payments abroad, there was but little apprehension for a rise, but when such large amounts as four million dollars per week have to be drawn from the bank reserve, it becomes a serious question how long the country is able to stand a drain like this. The difference between the specie value of the exports and imports is about one million dollars per week against the export with a foreign balance against this country of fifteen millions still unadjusted, it is plain that gold can not decline much, no matter what measures Congress may adopt in regard to our financial affairs.

Government bonds were a shade lower from yesterday afternoon's quotations, and investors pause a little before investing at present prices. The regular dealers in Government bonds have all large supplies on hand, bought in at low rates, which they are ready to sell as soon as the market has reached its highest point. Comparatively few will have enough to hold out, and when a decline of ½ per cent. at once would take place, a general scramble for selling would ensue and prices be carried downward beyond measure.

Stocks are still higher to-day, and Fort Wayne, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, North Western, and even the regular clique stocks, that were reported not worth 25 per cent. of what they were selling some time ago, are considered cheap at the present advanced prices. There is evidently a storm brewing for the dealers in watered Railway stocks that will carry down every one who is not able to lose 25 per cent. on stocks held at present prices. Express stocks are very dull, and every slight advance is rapidly followed by a corresponding decline.

In local stocks there are no transactions worth while reporting. Money is easy, business dull, and the requirements for legitimate business are limited.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 139⅞; 1881 bonds, 115⅝; 1862 5-20s, 111¾; 1864 do, 109¼; 1865 do, 109⅝; Consols, 111⅜; 10-40s, 105½; 7-30s, 108⅞.

—Says the Chicago Tribune, of Tuesday: The money market has presented no unusual feature to-day; bankers say that there has seldom been so continuously even a money market in all its phases as for the past two or three months. The decline in the wheat market on Saturday did not establish a sufficient margin between this and New York to encourage shipments, and but little is going forward to help to make exchange. The supply of loanable funds is slowly but steadily increasing, but there seems to be a degree of caution in all operations—unusual for plethoric a money market—that promises well for the avoidance of much inflation of prices. The latest effect of the ease in money has been to advance the price of governments everywhere. Here in Chicago there is an active demand for all classes of persons having money, from mechanics to capitalists and bankers, all of whom prefer to put their money into governments bonds than risk it in outside or speculative operations.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNSDAY, May 27, 1868.

Dullness is a general complaint among business men in nearly every department of trade. This, however, is to be expected at this particular season of the year, and no material improvement need be looked for until after harvest. The weather continues exceedingly favorable for the growing crops, and if there is no unforseen disaster, such as frost or drouth, the indications now are that there will be the largest yield of grain ever harvested in this country, as there was a larger area of ground put in than ever before known.

GRAIN—Winter Wheat is quiet and dull but unchanged; we continue to quote prime Red at $2,60 to $2,65; White 5 to 8c higher. Oats quiet but firm; sale of 700 bushels at 85c. Ear Corn is in fair demand, and prime Yellow is selling at $1,10; Shelled is dull—sale of White at $1,05. Rye is quiet at $1,95 to $2. No Barley in market.

GROCERIES—The grocery market is firm and fairly active, though without important change. Coffee is dull and weak, though not quotably lower, while Sugars are firm, with an upward tendency, and the same is true in regard to Fish. We quote as follows:

SUGARS—Cuba, 12½c for good grocery 12¾ to 13c for prime; and 15c for choice; Porto Rico—good, 13c; prime, 13½; choice, 13¾ to 14c; Clarified Cuba, 14 to 14½c. Refined—Standard Hard, 18c; A, 17c; B, 16¾c; Extra C, 16½c; Sugar House, 11½c.

COFFEE—Rio ranges all the way from 22 to 25½c for common to strictly prime. Java 37 to 38c.

SYRUPS—Lovering's $1; Silver Drips, $1; White Drips, $1,10; medium brands, 70 to 80c; common, 50 to 60c.

RICE—Rangoon, good, 10c; prime to choice, 11 to 11½c; Carolina, 12 to 12½c.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, 90 to $1; Cuba, 65 to 70c; Porto Rico, 70 to 75c.

SPICES—Cassia, 80 to 85c; Cloves, 50c; Pepper, 38c; Allspice, 35c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

STARCH—Madison, 8c; Silver Gloss, 12½c, and Corn Starch, 13½c.

FRUITS—Layer Rasins, $4,75 per box; Valentia, 20c per lb; Prunes, 17c; Currants, 14c for new.

BAR LEAD—12c; Shot, $3,50 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbitt's," 12c; "Oakley's," 11½c; Rosin, 4½ to 6c; "Dobbin's," 15c.

CANDLES—Mould, 16c; Star, 23c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$7,50 per case.

BI CARB SODA—$8,50 per 100.

FISH—White Fish, $8,25 to $8,50; Lake Herring, $4,50; Mackerel No. 1, $22; No. 2, $18,00; No. 3, $14,50; in half bbls, 50c more.

TOBACCO—Black 5s, 10s, ⅓s and Louisville Navy, 72 to 75c; Wm. H. Grant's 10s and Navy, 80c; C. & D. Tobacco, 22c to 25c for best.

TEA—The market is firm and prices are higher for new crop. Choice Young Hyson, $1,75; fair, $1,50; common to good, $1 to $1,35; Oolong, 75c, 85c, 90c, $1, $1,25 and $1,35; good Porto Rico, $1 to $1,85, as to quality. Imperial, $1 to $1,85. Japan—Choice, $1,30; fair $1.

BUTTER—Continues very dull, with a supply largely in excess of the demand; sales of good to strictly prime Roll at 20 to 22c. Sale of 3500 lbs prime fresh roll and packed at 21c.

EGGS—In good demand and sell readily at 21c.

POTATOES—Continue dull and the supply is larger than it has been for some time. We now quote prime Peach Blows at $1,40 to $1,45, in store.

GREEN APPLES—There is a fair local demand, and we can report regular sales at $5 to $7 per barrel, according to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Is less active but unchanged; sales at 6½c to 7½c for Apples, and 12 to 14c for Peaches.

HAY—Baled Hay is selling pretty freely notwithstanding the arrivals by river continue liberal. We can report sales of good to strictly prime at $20 to $25.

PROVISIONS — Bacon is less excited, and while the market is easier, prices are unchanged. We continue to quote at 14½c for Shoulders; 16½ to 18½c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 20 to 21c for Plain and Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Lard, 19¼ to 19½c. Mess Pork, $29.

LARD OIL—Is still quoted by manufacturers at $1,25 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in demand and scarce but unchanged at $2,50 to $2,55. No demand whatever for Clover or Timothy.

HOMINY—Is dull and Unchanged; sales at $6 to $6,25.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and the market is dull and prices have a drooping tendency; we continue to quote at $10,75 to $11,50 for Spring Wheat; $12,50 to $13 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $16 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $10,25 to $10,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, May 27, 1868.

CRUDE—The market was exceedingly quiet to-day, but a single sale reported, one thousand barrels for June, seller's option at 10c. If this is to be taken as a fair criterion of the market, and we see no reason why it should not be, as it was reported as a fair and square sale, without an "if" or a "but," June oil has declined from a quarter to a half since Tuesday, when the same delivery sold at 10½c and 10¾c. Exception having been taken by some few dealers to the way in which the oil market in this paper is reported, we would here take occasion to state that we have always endeavored to report it correctly, without regard to person or faction. It matters not to us whether the market is dull or buoyant; whether oil is selling at 10 or 50 cents; whether the production is increasing or decreasing; whether a corner is a success or a failure; whether stocks are large or small. Our aim is, and always has been, to give a correct report, and in this we have always had the aid and assistance of the great majority of those engaged in the trade.

REFINED—There was rather more activity in the market for bonded oil to-day, the reported sales being larger, in the aggregate, than during any preceding day this week, reaching six thousand barrels in the aggregate. In prices there is no important change, though the improved demand seemed to produce a stronger feeling, which is always the case. The sales were as follows: 1,000 bbls last half of June at 28¾c; 500 do do at 28½c; 1,000 do do at 28½c; 1,000 first half at 28½c; 500 do at 28½; and 1,200 for last half of July at 29½c. It was also reported that there had been a sale of 3,000 bbls, in Philadelphia, for the first half of July at 28½c.

FOR SALE—First-class Oil Refinery, situated on line of Allegheny Valley Railroad, river front, containing about six acres, with stills, tanks, steam pumps, settling tanks, all new and in complete order. Capacity of works, six to seven hundred (600 to 700) barrels refined oil per week. Storage capacity, 9,000 barrels; switch to Railroad; new dwellings, warehouse, &c. The above works are new and in complete running order. For particulars, inquire of D. W. C. Carroll, trustee, or Carroll & Snyder, Short street.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

A Colored Bishop at Chicago.

The session of the Methodist Conference on Saturday last was signalized by the reception of the delegate, Rev. Singleton E. Jones, from the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, who is clothed with power to arrange for the affiliation and union of his church with this. When he was conducted to the stand there was a loud clapping of hands all over the Conference room. His credentials and the address of his General Conference was read, and when he was introduced to the Conference, the body arose to receive him.

He came forward, amid applause, and said:

"I greet you. I come from a body numbering 164,000 members, and belonging to the Methodist family. The causes of our leaving the mother church a half century ago, are found in the disabilities imposed upon us. We now have 694 ministers grouped into sixteen annual conferences, and superintended by six chief officers.

"A century passed away, since the immortal Wesley laid the foundations of Methodism in our country on the indestructible basis of Bible purity and Bible equality. Now the State, in advance of the church, has settled its policy on the principles of the Declaration of Independence which we understand to recognize that man is man; and our church now understand that, by your recent action, your church has recognized the same principle—that man is man, that a Christian is a Christian, whatever be his race.

"We now come to ask whether we can arrange to live together again. We lived together peaceably as master and slave, can we not as freemen! We cannot—we dare not consent to any thing less than equality. We do not come to thrust ourselves upon us, We do not propose to enter your parlors unless you invite us, nor you to enter ours unless we shall ask you.

"We ask that our bishops shall be recognized; we wish them to preside in our conferences over us, and when an interchange may be effected, we shall welcome it. We do not propose to force these metters, but to let time adjust them, and, more than all else, to let the Christian principle settle them. If this principle can be recognized by this white, and our black body, our united Methodism, just entering upon its second century, will be the grandest and most powerful of all organizations for the evangelization of the world."

No address made during the session has produced so much sensation as the fifteen minute speech of this colored man. He was frequently encored during the course of his remarks, and when he sat down it was amid general applause.

Petroleum Items.

A new well was struck last week on the hill territory of the Foster Farm, Pioneer Run. It is now producing seventy barrels per day. The working interest is owned by Messrs. Alonzo Winang and S. P. Boyer.

Two new wells have been struck on the Allegheny River, below Franklin, during the last few days. Neither of them are producing largely as yet.

A new well will be tested to-day, on the Foster Farm, Pioneer Run.

On Sunday last, a new well was struck on Lease No. 12, of the Woods Farm. Yesterday it was producing one hundred and twenty-five barrels per day. The working interest is owned by Captain Jones, formerly of the Bennehoff Mutual Company, and J. Hoops, of the Bennehoff Run Company.

Mr. S. A. Woods struck a new one hundred and thirty barrel well on the Woods Farm on Sunday last.

A new well was struck on Saturday last on the Brown Farm, near Pleasantville. During yesterday it produced about eighty barrels. It is owned by Mr. A. W. Say, of Oil City.

The well owned by Messrs. Long and Raymond on the Tallman Farm, Upper Cherry Run, is now being tested. The show so far has been very good, and no doubt is entertained of its producing largely. Messrs. Long and Raymond secured the lease of three acres on which the well is situated on three-fifths royalty, some time ago.

The corner which occurred in Philadelphia on refined petroleum, during the latter part of last week, failed to advance the price on account of the petroleum having been delivered as fast as called for.—Titusville Herald.

The Prospects of the Farmer.

It is conceded that the coming wheat crop of the two varieties of Spring and Winter is large, and on the whole in a good condition throughout the whole country, and by no means excepting California and the interior Territories. But regarding corn, which, in various ways, is the basis of a vast amount of food, and fully equal in importance to wheat, the present prospect is more discouraging than it has been for many years. From the Atlantic to the western line of Illinois, where the greater part of the corn of the United States is raised, there have been rain-falls with few intervals through all this planting season, which is now rapidly drawing to a close. Except on sandy soil, it is safe to say that at this date, it would be difficult to find a single considerable-sized field of corn planted and growing well, between the ocean and the Mississippi. And yet there has scarcely been a planting season within this generation of which such a statement could have been made Still, the exceptions in this broad extent where inactivity reigns are important. Through almost all of the Southern States corn was planted in due season, and the same is to be said of parts of Missouri, and of a large portion of Iowa, while in Minnesota and Wisconsin, almost always bringing up the rear, the young corn is now out of the ground, and rapidly growing. But regarding the great corn belt, the farmer waits day after day, and week after week, for sunshine and dry weather—and waits in vain. Each day is like another—a day of mist and showers. Of course, gardenwork is in like backwardness. Less than a week now remains to the month of June, and should favorable weather come now, this time, at least, it is required to fit the ground for the plow, while bottom fields, always producing puny crops, will need a longer period.—N. Y. Tribune.

A DISPATCH from Omaha says that the Union Pacific Railroad now reaches six hundred miles west of that place, and is in running order to a point fifty miles beyond the highest ridge of the Rocky Mountains. The rapid construction of this railroad is one of the most marvelous feats in the chronicles of engineering. Nothing like it in "railroading" was ever before accomplished. Sixty miles of the track have been completed since the spring opened, and at this rate nearly four hundred miles will have been laid down before the end of the year, and the great turnpike between the Atlantic and Pacific opened for travel next year, instead of 1870, as promised.

MINERAL out of which to manufacture a powder for making red paint of a superior quality, exists in West Buffalo township, Union county, Pennsylvania. This adds another element of wealth to the great mineral resources of Pennsylvania which are daily developing new features and wonderful variety.

Going "Short" on a Ch

"Pinto" writes to the Hartford Courant: The propensity among brokers to "take a risk" manifested itself in a queer way recently. A member of Henry Ward Beecher's Church was expressing solicitude lest he should not be able to get a pew for less than one-third more than he paid last year, when a fellow-broker spoke up and said: "I will sell you a pew. What will you give for one?" "Three hundred and fifty dollars," was the reply. "Sold," exclaimed the other, with a laugh, in which the lookers-on joined. The seller afterward attended the auction sale of the Plymouth Church pews; bid one off for three hundred and twenty-five dollars, and gave the receipt to his acquaintance, making twenty-five dollars by the operation. Selling short on church stock is rather a novel idea, to say the least.

THE subject of union between the Methodist Episcopal Church and the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church was reported on yesterday in the General Conference by the Select Committee to whom the matter had been referred, and the report was unanimously adopted. The report places the whole matter in the hands of a Commission, consisting of the Board of Bishops and eight others whom they may select, who are to meet, in the interim of the Conference, a similar Commission appointed by the General Conference or the other body, and if a report can be agreed upon by the Joint Committee, this report is to be submitted to the next General Conference for action by that body.—Chicago Republican. 26th.

IN THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY, No. —, of March Term, 1868.

MISCEL. DOCKET.

{ L. S. } On the 18th day of April, 1868, the Petition of divers citizens of Allegheny was presented to the Court, showing that an alley in the City of Allegheny, beginning on Ridge street and extending through to Rebecca street, in said city, was laid out by ST. CLAIR DENNY, over land then owned by him, twelve feet wide; that A. P. OSGOOD, A. H. ENGLISH and G. W. LYON are at present the owners in the soil over which said alley has been laid out; that said alley has never been opened or used by the public, &c., and praying that the Court decree the vacation of said alley; whereupon the Court made the following order:

And now, to wit, April 18th, 1868, upon the petition of A. M. Marshall, C. A. Carpenter, Van B. Fowler, Albert Stright, John Orr, Marchall Heinle, John Atwell, C. P. Marthens, John Frazier, S. P. Shriver, B. Bakewell, jr., J. W. Simpson, twelve freeholders of the vicinity of the alley within named, praying the Court to decree the vacation of the same, a rule is granted upon all the parties desiring to be heard, to appear in Court on the 23d day of May next, at 10 o'clock A. M., to show cause, if any they have, why said alley shall not be vacated, and the Court direct that this rule be published once a week for four successive weeks, in the GAZETTE newspaper, published in said county of Allegheny. Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church, Fifth street, next door to GAZETTE office.

General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

SEVENTH DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Synod met at half-past nine o'clock, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. Minutes read and approved.

Rev. Mr. Harshaw rose to a personal explanation. Rev. Mr. Arman had called his attention to a remark that his (Mr. Arman's) father had made in relation to the character of Mr. Francis Rouse. Mr. Arman did not think he was responsible for the remark as he did not make it on his own authority.

Dr. McMaster read the report on Presbyterial reports. Adopted.

Dr. Douglas read the report of the Committee on Discipline in relation to the reception under its care by the Second Presbytery of Philadelphia, the Third Reformed Presbyterian congregation of Philadelphia, which had not been regularly dismissed by the Reformed Presbytery of Philadelphia, under whose jurisdiction it was. The Committee declared that the reception of the congregation by the Second Presbytery was irregular, but inasmuch as the present relationship does not work any detriment to any of the parties, it recommended that the existing relations be not disturbed. The report was laid on the table for the present.

Dr. Douglas read the report of the Committee on the Signs of the Times. It recommends the last Thursday of November, or such other day as the Governors of the respective States may designate, to be observed as a day of thanksgiving. It also recommends that the Thursday of the week of Prayer, in January, 1869, or such other day as may be convenient, be observed as a day of fasting. The report was adopted.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the resolution in relation to George H. Stewart.

Dr. McLeod wished to say a few things in relation to the paper. And first in regard to the jurisdiction of the Synod in the case. The Synod possesses both original and appellate jurisdiction, and is, therefore, competent to pass such a resolution as that, before the house, if it see fit. It has universal jurisdiction as a court of review. He said these things for the information of the legal gentlemen who he understood were present taking notes of what was going on. All that is being done is done in the face of the Sun. He had been told three times within the last two days that if he would go on and sign as stated clerk the papers presented to Synod in the case, a writ would be issued against him. He feared no such threats. He threw himself on the Constitution of his country. The civil courts of the country will sustain the ecclesiastical courts in the exercise of their rights. The first principle of Erastianism is coming back upon us. There is a combined effort to break down our organization, by alienating her property. Will we permit men of wealth and influence to do this?

Proceeded to devotional exercises, Rev. Dr. Clarke, presiding. The following gentlemen led in the exercises: Dr. Theophilus Wylie, Dr. McLeod and Dr. T. W. J. Wylie.

Resumed the consideration of the resolution.

Mr. James Sample did not offer the resolution to consign the gentleman in question to destruction, but for his benefit. He would extend no sympathy or privilege to the gentleman that he withholds from the wife of his bosom. He does this and there is no disturbance in his family.

Rev. Samuel Wylie said if it was wrong for them to sing hymns, it was wrong for all to sing. He believed the reformation principles were important. Fifty years ago, when ordained in this church, he embraced these principles. There was then a prohibition against "occasional hearings" and "sitting on juries."

Synod adjourned, Rev. Dr. Sterett concluding by prayer,

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Synod met at three o'clock and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. Minutes read and approved.

Rev. Samuel Young read the report on the records of the Pittsburgh Presbytery. which were "neatly and correctly kept."

It was moved that the speeches of those who have already spoken on this subject be limited to ten minutes, and all others shall have as much time as they desire.

Rev. A. G. Wylie had good ground for his faith that they were a church, regularly organized and separate from all other churches in the land. Being an organized body they had organic laws. As long as the standards remain unrepealed they must be governed by them. They had endeavored time and again to amend the laws, but they had not been amended or repealed. Mr. Stuart's absence was an evidence of his defiance.

Dr. Wylie thought this was an unworthy imputation!

Mr. A. G. Wylie proceeded. He wanted the Reformed Presbyterian Church to declare where she stood. He did not want each one to go away after the adjournment claiming the victory, and everything is left so indefinite that each one may do as he pleases. If this matter is to go into the civil courts they must take their standards and determine the question on them. He did not wish to "slide" in the way they had been going for years. They had been challenged to take up this matter by those who had violated the law. He wanted to show he was not afraid to apply the law. Mr. Wylie presented a substitute for the whole matter before Synod. It is as follows:

Whereas, This Synod possesses original as well as appellate jurisdiction over all persons and all matters affecting the general interests of the church under its supervision and care; and whereas, there are well known and established laws in regard to the subjects of Psalmody and communion, in the former of which an inspired psalmody, to the exclusion of all initiations and uninspired compositions, is to be used in the worship of God; and, in the latter, declaring communion in sealing ordinances to be extended to those only whom we would receive to constant fellowship and become subject to the authority of this church; and whereas, George H. Stuart has openly and defiantly declared on various occasions and on the floor of this Synod, that he has in the worship of God used initiations and uninspired compositions called hymns, and that he has communed with others and in other churches in sealing ordinances; and has declared that he will continue to do so. Therefore,

Resolved, That by this avowed course of conduct G. H. Stuart has violated the laws of this Church in these cases made and provided.

Resolved, That G. H. Stuart be and he is hereby suspended from his office and from membership in this Church until he acknowledges his error in the premises and submits to the laws and authority of this Church, and that his seat in Synod in consequence be declared vacant.

Dr. McAuley desired to notice the expression that Mr. Stuart was "absenting himself." Mr. Stuart desired most earnestly to have the matter settled. He had sat with him during most of last night, and he had to be ministered till a very late hour.

Proceeded to the devotional exercises, Rev. S. W. Crawford, D. D., in the chair. The following gentlemen led in the religious exercises: Rev. Thomas Johnston, Rev. J. S. Scott and Rev. Samuel Young.

Dr. McAuley resumed. He had never used anything but the one hundred and fifty psalms in his own pulpit, but he had sung the doxology and he had sung more. He did not believe in an universal use of hymns; he believed in a Scripture psalmody—in the use of other portions of Scripture in the worship of God. He thought something was needed. Something should be done, and done now, but not in this form. If discipline is to be exercised, it must be exercised on a large number of the members of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. The discussions of Synod are circulated over the country. He read them in the dispatches of the associate press, and most excellent reports in the local press in this city. Is this the most honest and christian plan? He thought not.

Mr. Sample denied the truth of the statement made in the dispatch which McAuley read from Samuel M'Kee, of New York, to the effect that he (Mr. Sample) had first introduced hymns into the Sabbath School. He knew nothing about it. He never did it.

Dr. Wylie rose to a question of privilege. He had a letter from George H. Stuart, in which he stated that it was a fabrication that he was absenting himself from Synod unnecessarily.

Mr. Wylie said the letter did not seem to come from a man so sick as he is said to be. The inference is reasonable that his absence is a part of the programme.

Mr. William Early said he saw Mr. Stuart in a carriage yesterday evening in Allegheny. He was in company with those whom Mr. Stuart characterises, in his letter, as "libellers," and he was free to say "there was nothing said or done by those men that was improper," as Mr. Stuart charged unjustly in his letter.

Dr. S. B. W. McLeod said no friend of Mr. Stuart had carried the news to him of what was said in relation to his sickness on the floor of Synod. His physicians should protect him from such messengers.

Dr. Wylie wished to know if Mr. Wylie withdrew his charge after hearing the letter of Mr. Stuart?

Mr. A. G. Wylie said he had a right to draw the inference at the time. As regards the state of affairs now he admitted that they were as stated, but he could not withdraw the inference that he made before. He had a right to make the inference in the circumstances that Mr. Stuart was absenting himself designedly.

Dr. Sterrett did not believe that the best way to settle this matter was the passage of the paper before the house.

Adjourned to meet in the evening at half past seven o'clock, Rev. W. S. Bratton concluding by prayer.

EVENING SESSION.

Synod met at half-past seven o'clock and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

Proceeded to the discussion of the question pending at the adjournment in the afternoon.

Rev. Thomas Johnston would like if the matter could be indefinitely postponed, laid on the table or under the table. The effect of adopting the paper will be the suspension of a member of this court for his candid avowal that he had used human composition in the worship of God. He did not think it would do any good. It would never bring back the gentleman referred to to the use of the practices of the church.

Rev. J. F. Hill would vote against the resolution. But he would dissent from the extreme views expressed by the gentleman who had taken his seat. He was discontented with the state of things in the church at the present time. Two ministers have gone during the past year. On next Monday another congregation in addition to those already gone, will take such action as will place it beyond the jurisdiction of this church. There was a great change in the spirit and temper of the Synod since last year. A similar paper was presented last year and it was hurled back with indignation in the face of the brother who presented it. A paper on Union with the United Presbyterian Church was also presented and met with a similar fate. "Passive toleration" he believed was the device of the devil. Either this resolution or something like it should be passed, or else liberty should be granted members to use their discretion.

Rev. Dr. Douglas said the question was not, what the law might be; what the law should be: nor what it ought to be. The question is, what is the law? There is a law upon the subject which says the psalms of scripture "to the exclusion of all imitations, and uninspired compositions, are to be used in social worship." It was said, playfully, that those who are contending for the execution of the law are executioners, or hangmen. It is strange that those who contend for liberality in this matter did not stand up in defence of Rev. D. Kennedy when he was charged with a similar offence in 1853. These same gentlemen were members of the Synod that charged that gentleman with "grossly violating the established law and order of the Church," but not one of them raised a voice in his defence. He was at once sent down to the Pittsburgh Presbytery to be dealt with according to the laws of the Church in such cases made and provided. Now these men think they are hardly dealt with, and yet they themselves showed no favor in the case referred to. Not one of them lifted a voice in defence in that matter. Certainly they will not think hard of those who do the same thing now. Dr. Douglas read the roll of Synod of 1853 and 1854 in proof of his position that the gentlemen now on the defensive were members of the Court and approved of everything that was done. Was it more a violation of the law then than it is now? Was it more a gross violation of the established order of the Church then than now? If the law was oppressive —if it was not in accordance with the light of the age in which we live or the genius and spirit of the Gospel dispensation, let it be repealed. He would not protest against that if Synod in her superior wisdom should see fit to do it. But no sensible man could complain if the law has been violated that the penalty should be inflicted. He would deter to the many distinguished jurists present, and he would abide by their decision on the point of law.

Rev. Robert McMillan made a short address, after which Synod adjourned to meet this morning at half-past nine o'clock, Rev. John McMillan concluding by prayer.

Kept His Trunk.

Edward Davis made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday, charging William Morgan with larceny by bailee. Morgan is the proprietor of a small hotel on Penn street, where it appears the defendant boarded for a short time. Monday morning he inquired the amount of his board bill, and was informed that it was five dollars. Having procured employment in another portion of the city which required him to change his boarding house, he paid his bill and asked for his trunk. The landlord informed him that he could not get the trunk until he paid a bill of two dollars for whisky which he had ordered, and refused to give it up. The trunk and contents is valued at twenty dollars. The accused was arrested and held to bail for his appearance at court.

Discharged.—John McFarland and Pat Karns, employés at the rolling mill of Graff, Byers & Co., South Pittsburgh, got into a quarrel yesterday, when it is alleged that the latter struck the former on the face with a heavy iron wrench. McFarland made information before Justice Barker, of South Pittsburgh, charging Karns with assault and battery. Karns was arrested and taken to the Justice's office, where the case was compromised and the accused discharged, after which they were both discharged by their employers.

Committee Meeting.—At a meeting of the East Birmingham Republican Executive Committee, held Monday evening, Justice August Ammon was elected Chairman and John Hughes, Secretary. The following officers were appointed to conduct the primary election Saturday: Judge, David Sheeney; Inspectors, P. W. Reed and John Sheppard; Clerks, James Campbell and J. R. Jacques.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Association will take place this day at 2½ o'clock P. M., at the "Home for Destitute Women," No. 45 Chatham street. All the Visitors are urged to attend promptly.

The State Sabbath School Convention.

We are pleased to learn that the prospects for a large gathering at the above named Convention the coming week, are of the most flattering kind. The Committee having the matter in hand, have been a little slow in giving the public information of what they were doing, but from the list of names shown us of distinguished Sunday School men who expect to take part in the Convention, we may confidently promise that the Convention will be the best yet held in the State.

Its sessions commence on Tuesday morning next in the Second Presbyterian Church on Penn street. We are permitted to announce that Theodore E. Perkins, of New York, the composer and publisher of much of our best Sunday School music, will be present and take charge of the music of the Convention and the children's meetings.

Rev. G. A. Petty, of Philadelphia, will give some blackboard lessons for infant schools.

Rev. A. S. Osborn, LL. D., will deliver a lecture upon Sacred Geography, illustrated by the best maps of Palestine yet published.

Andrew A. Smith, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Rev. T. A. Pierson, of Waterford, N. Y., and James H. Kellogg, of Troy, N. Y., all in the front rank as Sunday School workers and talkers, have given assurance of their presence at the Convention.

Prof, Wickersham, State Superintendent of Common Schools, hopes to be with us.

Rev. S. B. Barnitz, of Wheeling, and other live Sunday School men from the West, have sent word that they will be present.

Other names will probably be announced as soon as the Committee receive assurance that the parties have concluded to attend.

Teachers and friends of Sabbath Schools in the two cities may expect a real treat, and should make every preparation to receive our visitors with true Pittsburgh hospitality. Persons willing to entertain members of the Convention, are requested to send their names, without delay, to Mr. J. H. Hillerman, 75 Wood street.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

The jury in the case of Jackson E. Rousch, indicted for having in his possession counterfeit Government currency, with intent, &c., returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged. The Court remarked that it would have been satisfied with a different verdict.

The case of Breen and Ripley, indicted for attempting to pass counterfeit Government money, was concluded, but the jury had not agreed on a verdict at adjournment.

The jurors in the District Court were discharged until Monday next. The remainder of the week will be devoted to Circuit Court business.

In the bankruptcy branch final discharge was granted and certificate awarded to William Swisshelm, of Wilkins township, Allegheny county.

The following petitions for final discharge were filed: Robert H. Peepler, Jno. Patterson, Samuel Spicer, of New Castle, Lawrence count ; W. E. Brandon, West Pittsburgh; Ellis Sheppler, Clinton county; Wm. M. Musser, Center county; Daniel Seal, Northumberland county; Philip R. Rahn, Pittsburgh.

The following petitions for adjudication were filed: M. Horsley, Allsgheny City; James J. Williams, Erie; Drniel J. Curiv, Danville; Jacob Hendricks, Snyder county; James T. McGreggor, Northumberland county; John H. Olmstead, Venango county; Jas. S. Steele, Oil City; Thomas E. Curtis, Titusville;; Solomon L. Ullmany, Franklin; Wm. H. Carle, Oil City; G. M. Ellenberger, Lycoming county; Levi Conser, Clinton county; M. Bullard, Tioga; Abram Kimble, Potter couuty; Charles H. Super, Allegheny City; Jacob Patterson Butler county.

The Agricultural Board—Time of Holding the Fair.

The Board of Managers of the County Agricultural Society held a meeting yesterday, at No. 10 St. Clair street, Capt. John Young, Jr., in the chair. Present, Messrs. Parke, John Murdock, Jr., Chess, Jennings, McKelvy and Anderson.

The Printing Committee reported that the Premium List for the next Fair had been arranged in form for publication. The report was accepted.

On motion, the address to accompany the Premium List, and the rules and regulations for the information of exhibitors and visitors, were referred to the Printing Committee, to report at the next meeting.

The time for holding the Fair was fixed for Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th.

The Board then adjourned,

Sacred Concert.

The grand Sacred Concert to be given at St. Paul's Cathedral this evening, under the direction of Prof. J. H. Schenuit, will doubtless be a most excellent entertainment. The best musical talent in the city, both instrumental and vocal, will participate in it, and all lovers of good music should attend, as it is seldom so favorable an opportunity is afforded our citizens of enjoying such a rich musical treat. Eighteen pieces of choice music have been selected for the occasion, consisting of choruses, quartettes, trios, duetts and solos, with a full orchestra accompaniment. Tickets of admission, $1,50; single tickets, $1.00. We expect to see a crowded house.

Fire in Snyder's Hollow.

About four o'clock yesterday morning fire was discovered issuing from the roof of the building occupied by Henry Lantz as a dwelling and grocery, situated in Snyder's Hollow. The flames had gained such headway before being discovered that, although the residents in the immediate vicinity turned out promptly and labored energetically, the entire building was destroyed. The Allegheny Fire Department was also called out, and the firemen succeeded in preventing the flames from spreading to the adjacent buildings. The origin of the fire has not been ascertained.

Serious Accident.—An accident occurred at Watson's old brewery, corner of Spring alley and O'Hara street, yesterday morning, by which Mr. Paul Wilmot,, engineer at the establishment, was seriously injured. He had descended into a well on the premises for some purpose to, a depth of twenty feet from the surface, when one of the hands who was assisting him, let a heavy box fall which struck him on the head inflicting a severe wound. He was taken out insensible and removed to his boarding house. His injuries though very severe are not of a dangerous character.

Death of Hon. Alex. C. Alexander.—It is our painful duty to record the death, at his residence on Esplanade street, Allegheny, on Wednesday morning, of Mr. Alexander, at the age of sixty-five. This event was not wholly unexpected, but will be lamented by the entire community in which he has been long known and highly esteemed as an honorable and upright citizen. Mr. Alexander served three terms in the office of Mayor of Allegheny with signal satisfaction to the people and credit to himself.

Slightly Injured.—Michael Egan, employed in excavating a cellar at the corner of Liberty street and Stevensons alley, was slightly injured yesterday, the side of the excavation next to the alley caving in upon him. He was caught under the mass of earth, but was relieved by his fellow workmen before he had sustained any serious injury.

MORTGAGES.

Same day there were left in the office for record thirteen mortgages and two powers of attorney.

Alleged Larceny.

Mrs. Marinda Palmer, residing on Diamond alley, was arrested yesterday on a charge of larceny. Mr. Keyser keeps a stand in the market, and yesterday morning on leaving it in charge of his wife placed his pocket book, containing eighteen dollars, under some vegetables and called her attention to the fact. Shortly afterwards Mrs. K. left the stand to speak with one of her neighbors, when, it is alleged, Mrs. Palmer came along, and in turning over the vegetables discovered the pocket book, which she appropriated. The proprietor of a stand on the opposition side of the street saw the transaction and told Mrs. K., pointing out the woman whom he stated had taken the pocket book. Officer Dressler was called and arrested Mrs. P., who denied having the pocket book, and the officer started to the Mayor's office with her. He had proceeded some distance when another woman, who was walking behind them, called to him and said she had found the pocket book on the sidewalk. Mrs. P. was suspected of having stolen $118 from a lady in the market some time since, and a search warrant was issued, but no money was found. A large quantity of notions and dry goods, supposed to have been stolen, was found in the house and removed to the Mayor's office, After a hearing the accused was held to bail for her appearance at Court, in default of which she was committed. A portion of the goods, consisting of ribbons, to the value of about $30, have since been identified by Mr. F. H. Eaton as having been taken from his store, and he made information charging her with larceny, upon which a commitment was lodged against her.

Panorama of the Holy Land.—The Panorama of the Holy Land will be exhibited this evening in Dr. Clark's U. P. Church, corner of Sandusky street and Stocton avenue, and on Eriday and Saturday evenings at Davis Hall, Water street, between Federal and Sandusky streets.

Rev. W. A. Barnes will deliver a lecture in connection with the exhibition. Mr. Barnes has traveled through the Holy Land and Egypt and his lecture will be very interesting. These exhibitions are in aid of Sunday Schools and deserve the patronage of all.

Female Pugilists.—Malinda Lucas and Sarah Claggette, a pair of saddle colored females, who are somewhat notorious in the neighborhood in which they reside, on account of their frequent quarrels, gave a pugilistic entertainment on Wide Alley in the Sixth ward, yesterday morning. Malinda, it appears was beaten, and to be even with her antagonist made information before Alderman Strain, charging her with assault and battery. Sarah was arrested and held to bail for a hearing.

PITTSBURGH, May 27, 1868.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Will you be so kind as to call the attention of the Mayor to the outrageous proceedings carried on nightly on Sixth street? Last night, whilst on my way home, I was forced to defend two young ladies whom I plainly seen were in danger. Several men had followed them from Penn street, calling them vile names. Can it be that this is beyond the power of the law? I hope not. C.

Coal for Sale.—We invite the attention of capitalists and coal men, to the advertisement of S. F. Von Bonnhorst, Trustee of George Miltenberger, dec'd, in to-day's paper. This property is one of the most valuable in the county, being 23 acres and 17 perches of splendid coal. Will be offered at Public Sale on Tuesday the 10th day of June next at 10 o'clock A. M., at the Court House. For the particulars see advertisement.

Assault and Battery.—George White made information before Alderman Butler, yesterday, charging Mat Harbison with assault and battery. The accused resides at Mansfield. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Held for Trial.—Ed. Ingraham, charged before the Mayor, on oath of John Moore, with felonious assault, had a hearing yesterday and was held in the sum of $500 for his appearance at Court.

Female Diseases.

At the present day it is extremely rare to find a female who is entirely free from some one or other of the diseases peculiar to her sex. Go where you will, on the mountain top or in the valley, in the hamlet or in the city, among the rich or the lowly, there will be found but very few females who are not laboring under physical affliction peculiar to womanhood.

The cause of this we will not undertake to explain here. The numerous applications made to us for relief during our twenty years' practice, has long since induced us to make especial study and investigation of these diseases, and their best method of cure. They are maladies of a peculiar character, and as a general thing they require a method of treatment entirely unlike that adopted for those common to both sexes. In fact the very frequency and extent of female diseases in our midst, is good evidence that the "common treatment" has not met with success, and shows that some more efficient course should be adopted.

We were long since convinced that local remedies and external appliances, bandages, &c. were mere palliatives for the time, and of no permanent value whatever, but ofttimes injurious; and that an efficient course of medication was the only hope of cure.

For the benefit of those who may be afflicted with any disease peculiar to the sex, whether from a slight cold, followed by a derangement and irregularity of the general system, which many times produces cough, expectoration, tightness of chest, difficult breathing, palpitation, &c., with all the symptoms of "going into a decline," or from any of the very many other causes which produce such terrible suffering among women, as to make life a burden to them, we would say, that our remedies are selected and prepared with a special view towards these ends, and will give relief in all these kinds of cases without needless exposure to indelicate examinations, or the wearing of disagreeable instruments or cumbersome appliances.

We have cured hundreds, yes, thousands of cases, by medical treatment alone; hundreds of whom we have never seen, but who only obtained their medicines after having sent to us their cases for examination.

Our remedies in these diseases are mild but effectual, and are such as we have found out to act in conformity with the laws of nature in regulating health; and from the success which has almost invariably crowned our efforts in these cases, we can promise, and do promise, a speedy cure in every case where a reasonable hope can be entertained.

Especial attention is directed to the above.

Residence and Grounds on Ohio Avenue, Allegheny City, at Auction—Sale on the Premises, At Two O'clock, on Friday, May 29th.

The spacious and finely situated grounds, with a commodious dwelling house, the present residence of Mr. Jonathan Gallaher, on Ohio avenue, Allegheny, near the new Methodist Church, will be sold at auction on Friday afternoon, May 29th, at two o'clock. The lot fronts 122 feet on Ohio avenue, and extends 300 feet to Locust, a fifty feet street. It is finely embellished with lawn, trees, gravel paths and carriage drive, fountain, summer house, iron fences and gates. The house has three porches, spacious hall, large double parlors, finely frescoed, four bed-rooms, library, dining-rooms, kitchen with range, and three finished attic rooms. The apartments are all spacious, well ventilated and have high ceilings; gas throughout.

The views from the house are extensive and exceedingly fine, embracing city, river and surrounding hills as far as Dixmont, to the west. The passenger cars pass in front of the lot. Churches of nearly all denominations in the vicinity.

Terms—One-third cash, balance in three annual payments. Possession given to suit the purchaser.

A. LEGGATE, Auctioneer,
159 Federal St., Allegheny.

Grant.

That deafness can be cured is granted by the following cards:

I applied to Dr. Aborn at 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, two weeks ago, having been deaf for five years. The Doctor gave me instant relief, and I have continued to improve ever since his first operation. Every person within a thousand miles of Pittsburgh who is so unfortunate as to be deprived of hearing, should make the effort to visit Pittsburgh and consult Dr. Aborn.

ALEX. GLASS.
WHEELING, West Va., May 23d, 1868.

On the 11th of October, 1866, I applied to Dr. Aborn, of Pittsburgh, for deafness and buzzing in the ears, and obtained instant relief. Nearly two years have elapsed since the first operation, which was performed without the slightest pain. I sincerely recommend him as a skillful and successful operator.

R. K. CAMPBELL.
WAYNESBURG, Pa., May 23d, 1868.

Contracts Awarded.

At a meeting of the Street Committee held last evening, the following contracts for grading and paving were awarded:

Miltenberger street, from Pennsylvania avenue to Bluff street, to W. & F. Campbell.

Vine and Crawford streets from Pennsylvania avenue to Reed street, to John McGee.

The Committee propose to change the names of a number of streets in the city, in order to avoid the confusion which naturally results in consequence of names being duplicated.

Embezzlement.—Max Reibenack made information before Alderman Strain yesterday, charging Davis R. Thomas with embezzlement. The prosecutor is a general insurance agent from Philadelphia, and the accused was a local agent on the Pennsylvania Railroad. It was alleged that Thomas had received and appropriated to his own use $52, which he should have turned over to the general agent. He was arrested and taken before the Alderman, when the affair was compromised, Thomas disgorging the $52 and paying the costs.

Bill Posters at Law.—James Thackery made information before Alderman Strain yesterday, charging Charles Whitton John Thompson and John McCarthey, with malicious mischief. The parties are "outside paper hangers," and it appears that the accused posted bills on the prosecutor's bulletin boards, Monday night, covering and defacing bills previously posted by him. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused.

Caved In.—The Forbes street sewer has caved in at Pride street. About twenty feet of it has fallen in and we are informed that the greater portion of it will stand but a short time.

Young Men's Mercantile Library.—The Library and Reading Room of this association, having been closed for one week for renovation, will re-open this day at one o'clock P. M.

Barnett's Florimel.—All Nature's sweets in millions of homœpathic atoms, seem to have been combined and distilled in the production of this delicious perfume. TTSW

Confiscated.—Forty-three pounds of butter were confiscated in the market yesterday morning, in consequence of light weight.

See advertisement of pocket-book lost, in Allegheny market, on the 4th page of to-day's paper.

Mrs. Dr. Lonergan, Physician and Electrician.

Gives special attention to the treatment of, Chronic Diseases and the diseases of Women and Children.

Her vegetable pills improve the general condition by giving tone and energy to the digestive organs, and will relieve headache almost immediately. The hundreds who have been cured by her give evidence that her remedies are safe and efficacious, and that her "Electrical treatment" is judiciously employed. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m., at her residence, on Neville street, near Denman, Birmingham.

After Him.—The authorities of Armstrong county are after Albert Christy, who it appears broke jail in Kittanning about six months since, having been committed to answer a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit rape. He was recently committed to jail in this county by Mayor Drum on a charge of horse stealing, and yesterday a process was lodged against him from Armstrong county.

A Prominent Western Physician says:—"Wilson's Pills are the only combination I have ever met with in my long course of practice that really possesses anything curative or specific for Sick Headache." All the druggists sell them.

Allegheny Councils.—A regular semimonthly meeting of Allegheny City Councils will be held this (Thursday) evening, the 28th instant, at 7½ o'clock.

To Merchants and Milliners.—For every thing you want in the trimmings line we refer you to Joseph Horne & Co.'s advertisement on fifth page. 22:6t.

FOR SALE.—HOBOKEN.—THE balance of those desirable Lots are now offered at private sale, and any one desirous of fine building sites would do well to make a selection. The village is located on a beautiful and healthy spot, two and a half miles from Sharpsburg, on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, which runs through it, making it much more valuable and agreeable. Extensive preparations are now making for erecting a number of fine houses, which will prove an ornament to the town. The remainder of these Lots will be sold at very reasonable rates and on terms exceedingly easy. SILL & SHUTTERLY, Real Estate and Insurance Agents, Lawrenceville.
